Jack and the Check Book John Kendrick Bangs,2013-08-23 Once upon a time a great many years ago there lived a poor woman who, having invested all her savings in mining shares, was soon brought to penury and want. She had bought her modest little home and all there was in it on the instalment plan, and here she was, upon a certain beautiful morning in late spring, absolutely penniless, and three days off, staring her in the face, were payments due on the piano, the kitchen range and even on the house itself. Moreover, the winter had been a bitter one. Four times had the water-pipes frozen and burst, and a plumber's bill of appalling magnitude had come in the morning's mail, with the stern admonition stamped in red letters at the bottom:

The Clifford M. Lewis American Plan Check System Clifford M. Lewis,2017-10-13 Excerpt from The Clifford M. Lewis American Plan Check System: Adapted for Use of American Plan Hotels in General; For the Service of Table D'hote Meals in Restaurants, and for Banquets The American Plan Check system is a system by which the guest at an American plan hotel writes his order on a specially prepared check at the time he sits down to the table, or prior to that time. The headwaiter will suggest, when a guest gives a dinner party, or has an extra diner, or wants an early breakfast, or any meal served at a stated time, that the guest can secure a check and bill of fare prior to the meal hour, writing the order in full, thereby being relieved of any further thought of the meal until it is ready to be served. The waiter or headwaiter places before the guest an American plan check, a pencil and the menu card. The guest then writes on the check the entire order for himself.
