To help ease Chester's fears, Mrs. Raccoon shares a family secret called the Kissing Hand to give him the reassurance of her love any time his world feels a little scary. Since its first publication in 1993, this heartwarming book has become a children's classic that has touched the lives of millions of children and their parents, especially at times of separation, whether starting school, entering daycare, or going to camp. The Science of Kissing Sheril Kirshenbaum,2011-01-05 From a noted science journalist comes a wonderfully witty and fascinating exploration of how and why we kiss. When did humans begin to kiss? Why is kissing integral to some cultures and alien to others? Do good kissers make the best lovers? And is that expensive lip-plumping gloss worth it? Sheril Kirshenbaum, a biologist and science journalist, tackles these questions and more in The Science of a Kiss. It's everything you always wanted to know about kissing but either haven't asked, couldn't find out, or didn't realize you should understand. The book is informed by the latest studies and theories, but Kirshenbaum's engaging voice gives the information a light touch. Topics range from the kind of kissing men like to do (as distinct from women) to what animals can teach us about the kiss to whether or not the true art of kissing was lost sometime in the Dark Ages. Drawing upon classical history, evolutionary biology, psychology, popular culture, and more, Kirshenbaum's winning book will appeal to romantics and armchair scientists alike.

Kissing USA William Cane,2019-04-09 College. For many, it is a place of learning, self-discovery, and growth. But as much as parents don't want to admit it, college is also a time of unabashed exploration, especially for the MTV-drenched and Howard Stern Radio Show-soaked kids of the 1990s. So, it makes perfect sense that The Kissing Show, a performance based on the international bestseller The Art of Kissing, became a near-overnight sensation. Born out of William Cane's Judd Apatow-like desire to woo the woman of his dreams, The Kissing Show appeared at over 400 colleges and universities across the nation. Kissing U.S.A. reveals it all in a sexy (and sometimes shocking) behind-the-scenes look at all the things that were part of making the The Kissing Show a sensation: The comedic and surprising foibles of Cane's own love life The power of listening to and understanding your audience Dealing with competition from drag queens The importance of having a less-than-ideal muse The fact that almost anything can be a source of inspiration--if spun the right way Join Cane as he recounts his meteoric rise in the college lecture and entertainment circuit through all the good, the bad, and the awkward kisses that took North American colleges by storm. Who knew playing dentist could ever be a turn-on?

Anna Unkovich, a former teacher of thirty-five years, made a difference in her students' lives through the daily use of stories from the bestselling series Chicken Soup for the Soul. For many years, Unkovich read these stories to her students and noticed remarkable changes in them, both academically and personally. Recognizing that today's teenagers have more challenges in finding positive role models, she teamed up with bestselling author Mark Victor Hansen and veteran teacher, inspirational speaker, and bestselling author Jack Canfield to create an unprecedented educational curriculum for teachers to use to empower their students in the same way that they have. Unkovich chose the most inspirational stories from the more than one hundred Chicken Soup books published. These stories, activities, and plans will enhance your existing curriculum. Designed to be read aloud to students, each story is accompanied by thought-provoking questions and exercises specifically designed and used by the authors. The Kissing School Jordan Urtso,2013-10 Welcome to Blairstown University, where the courtyard is strewn with sandy-haired hunks playing flag football and stringing guitars. The cafeteria is buzzing with word on past weekend hookups. The dormitory walls are cemented with secrets and scandals. And boys and girls are stepping foot on the same soil for the very first time in their lives. Meet Nala Middleton, Sosie Hinkhouse, Juliet Bigsby and Tessa Van der Pool, the newest addition to BU's elitist crowd. Nala's already unimpressed by the juvenile boys scrambling around campus, and seems to have a much better connection with someone unexpected. Before graduation, Sosie met Gino Blackthorn, a rebellious boy from Elkins who snuck into the single-sex city of Bluffdale, and she's now determined to find him again. Juliet has always been jealous of Nala and Sosie, and will do anything to snag her very own beau, even if that means stepping on her friends' brand new, Laurent Le Blanc t-strap platforms. Tessa can't stand sharing the spotlight, and-more recently-boys. The freshman class has finally unpacked and settled in, but don't be fooled. Just because they're young and naive now, doesn't mean they'll stay young and naive forever. After all, they have 18 years worth of lost time to catch up on, and they certainly aren't about to hold back now that they've arrived at Blairstown University-or as it's come to be known-The Kissing School.

I like: Living in Paris, playing with my daughter Lila (four-years-old), the company of good friends, the smell of baking bread . . . But making a new start is fraught with complications. As she meets freshly-single Frédéric for a drink, spends the night with charmer Manu and runs away from ex-pat Marcus, she wonders: can she find a way to reconcile motherhood with single womanhood? To what extent can she keep Lila and her love life separate? And is she truly ready to turn her back on Nicolas?
