The Sword D.F. Jules,1998-03-01 My name is Leah Curran and my life sucks. While other people inherit boxes of junk from their relatives, my family inherits powers. And not even cool powers. I have the ability to sense Angels, Demons and most importantly the Touched; people who are graced and cursed with the power of Angels and Demons, responsible for keeping the balance between Good and Evil. When it came to them, my mother only had one rule; avoid them at all cost. I broke that rule and lost my mother because of it. Now I try to live a quiet, careful life with my uncle's family and my best friend, Gabe. But once in a while the universe likes to kick you in the face just to remind you that you are small and insignificant. The Touched are gathering in my small little town of nowhere, and some of them know me and know what I can do. Some of them want to hurt me, some of them want to use me, and so little few want to protect me. Avoiding them is no longer an option. I will finally have the chance to do something that I have been hopelessly wishing for since the night my mother disappeared; a chance to fight back. I have been waiting for this, I have trained for this. It's time to do or die. [Mizan, Novel, Indonesia]
