Monster, 1959 David Maine,2008-02-19 From the critically acclaimed author of The Preservationist and The Book of Samson, Monster, 1959 is an extraordinary tale of 1950s America---flawed, conflicted, and poised to enter the most culturally upended decade of the century. The United States government has been testing the long-term effects of high-level radiation on a few select islands in the South Pacific. Their efforts have produced killer plants, mole people, and a forty-foot creature named K. Covered in fur and feathers, gifted with unusable butterfly wings and the mental capacity of a goldfish, K. is an evolutionary experiment gone very awry. Although he has no real understanding of his world, he knows when he's hungry, and he knows to follow the drumbeats that lead him, every time, to the tree where a woman is offered to him as a sacrifice by the natives. When a group of American hunters stumble across the island, it's bound to get interesting, especially when the natives offer up the guide's beautiful wife to K. Not to be outdone, the Americans manage to capture him. Back in the States, they start a traveling show. The main attraction: K.

Suggested Reading Dave Connis,2019-09-17 In this hilarious and thought-provoking contemporary teen standalone that’s perfect for fans of Moxie, a bookworm finds a way to fight back when her school bans dozens of classic and meaningful books. Clara Evans is horrified when she discovers her principal’s “prohibited media” hit list. The iconic books on the list have been pulled from the library and aren’t allowed anywhere on the school’s premises. Students caught with the contraband will be sternly punished. Many of these stories have changed Clara’s life, so she’s not going to sit back and watch while her draconian principal abuses his power. She’s going to strike back. So Clara starts an underground library in her locker, doing a shady trade in titles like Speak and The Chocolate War. But when one of the books she loves most is connected to a tragedy she never saw coming, Clara’s forced to face her role in it. Will she be able to make peace with her conflicting feelings, or is fighting for this noble cause too tough for her to bear? “Suggested Reading is a beautiful reminder that there is nothing simple about loving a book.” —David Arnold, New York Times bestselling author of Mosquitoland

Real Americans Vito Anthony,2019-11 An Islamic terrorist has made his way across the US/Canadian border with plans to interrupt the trial of the infamous underwear bomber, kill as many American's as possible and throw the justice system into chaos. Anna a young girl of an immigrant family living in the heartland of Michigan suspects the man crossing her border patrol station is an imminent threat. The only problem is, no one believes her. The authorities laugh at her suspicions while she defies orders and follows his trail. V-man a sharp eyed, fast talking Vietnam vet who spends his days taking care of the Detroit neighborhood he grew up in, realizes something isn't right with his good friend's new house guest and sets off to discover just what is triggering his internal alarm bells. This turns into an exciting, fast paced, patriotic story of V-man, Anna and an unlikely group of hardened vets and Inner City survivors who have no choice but to try to put a stop to the terrorist plot before it is too late, and in doing so prove who the Real Americans really are.
