The first series of stories are built around two incredibly adorable mice called Harper and Remy. Later in the book, Millie will join in. Each night Harper, Remy and Millie come alive through the short stories. Review: Douglas has a wonderful gift of storytelling, and will stand out wonderfully in the market! I have read many children's books, and this one has been by far one of the best children's books I've seen in ages! It's easy to fall in love with the main characters. They are easily relatable from a child's point of view. The book is also very appealing as an adult/parent/caregiver, to become part of a shareable nighttime ritual to induce a relaxed, creative sleep within the youngsters they care for. I can also see older children reading this willingly. I felt connected to Titus, Constance, Evie, Remy, and Harper on a personal level. Overall this is an amazingly charming book by a wonderfully charming author! I can see the possibilities of cartoons and movies as well. My name's Jenifer, and I am a mother of 5

Dream Bunny's Tales - Saving the Land of Dreams Christine Garrett,2009-09-01 Dream Bunny is the tale of a whimsical rabbit with very long ears and a blue nightcap speckled with moonbeams. His best friend is a little star named Twink. They live in a magical and wonderful place called the Land of Dreams, barely hidden between the space of sleep and Imagine-nation. Their beautiful home is made up of the hopes, dreams and wishes of all the children in the world. Unfortunately, because children aren't using their imagination much anymore, the Land of Dreams is slowly disappearing and it is up to the two friends to find a way to save it. Christine Garrett was born in England to a mother who was both an opera singer and Shakespearean actress. The family moved to the United States when the author was very young. Her deep love for the arts was formed during the many hours that she spent as a young child backstage watching her mother perform. Following in her mother's creative footsteps, she is both an artist and a writer, currently living in Big Bear Lake, California. Dream Bunny's Tales is the author's favorite work. From illustrations to original lullaby music to animation screenplay and toys, she has created all aspects of this whimsical project. Following its original debut in a local newspaper column in Lake Arrowhead, children regularly wrote in to ask Dream Bunny all kinds of questions, including how to get bubble gum out of their hair. Dream Bunny never failed to give the perfect answer. Imagine that!
