Annual Tax Mess Organizer for Massage Therapists, Estheticians and Spa Owners Kiki Canniff,2011-11 This Annual Tax Mess Organizer is for massage therapists, estheticians and spa owners who are self-employed or small business owners, and have not kept itemized income and expense records as the year went along. For some it's their first business tax season; others have run their business this way for years. Now that April 15th is getting close, they're stressed out, and forced to stop working to deal with a disorganized pile of receipts and paperwork sitting between them and that approaching tax deadline. This organizer explains how to get on top of that paperwork quickly, so you can satisfy the IRS and get back to work. You'll learn a simple method for organizing small business receipts, and exactly what the IRS expects of a self-employed person. Depending on how big of a mess you start with, you should be ready for the tax professional in 1-4 hours. Step by step, the organizer walks you through the sorting of your own receipts, explaining what the IRS expects, helping you to get everything organized and ready for your tax preparer. No computer necessary. For those who have always done their own personal tax return, there is even a chapter on how to fill out the small business Schedule C tax form. It walks you through this form, line by line, showing you where to post all of the information you've gathered. Self employment taxes, 1040 entries, and other deductions for the self employed are also explained.
