Seoul Searching Rebecca Wilson, 2019-01-11 In 1981, a 31-year-old single Christian woman moves to Seoul, South Korea, to teach first grade in a foreign school. While teaching overseas has long been on her life list, her adjustment to a new culture and language is overwhelming, but exciting and rewarding. Develop a love for Korea along with her. Her adventures include getting a master's degree in a foreign country, and in the sequel Re-Searching Seoul, writing English textbooks for Korean middle schools, and enjoying the 1988 Seoul Olympics. She is also intent on pursuing another life list goal-to become a mother, but finds it illegal. Does she have the fortitude necessary to take on the Korean government in a long, impossible, exhausting battle to build a family? Journey with her in both books (Seoul Searching and Re-Searching Seoul) through monthly newsletters and private diary entries as she not only adjusts to the culture around her but fights the Korean government to achieve her heart's desire-motherhood.--Back cover.

Heart of a Mule Dick Schafrath,2006 He won national football championships with the 1964 Cleveland Browns and the 1957 Ohio State University Buckeyes. He served two terms in the Ohio senate. He was the first person ever to canoe across Lake Erie. He ran 60 miles nonstop between Cleveland and Wooster, Ohio, on a bet. He met presidents. He wrestled bears. Yes, Dick Schafrath has plenty of stories to tell. In this book, he tells the most entertaining and inspiring stories from his first 70 years. Stories of growing up on an Ohio farm with no plumbing, plowing behind a pair of mules; of playing alongside famous teammates and coaches (Jim Brown, Paul Brown, Gary Collins, Woody Hayes . . .); of political campaigns and publicity stunts; of a life dedicated to hard work and ruled by stubborn determination (hence his longtime nickname, The Mule). These stories will entertain and inspire.
