Children of the Calling Eric Nelson Newberg, Lois E. Olena, 2014-12-23 This volume of essays, dedicated to Stan and Ruth Burgess, has been written by their colleagues and students to honor them as they retire after many years of distinguished service to Evangel University, Southwest Missouri State University, and Regent University. Several meanings can be subsumed under the title Children of the Calling. Stan and Ruth grew up in India, children of Pentecostal missionaries who felt they had divine callings. They were influenced not only by the religious callings of their parents, but also by the cultural milieu of India. Though they did not personally take on board the specific missionary calling of their parents, they charted life maps that benefitted from the cross-cultural proficiencies developed in their childhoods in India, which to a large extent colored the influence they would have on their children, academic colleagues, and students, some of whom have submitted essays for this Festschrift. The diversity of subjects in this volume attests to the breadth of the scholarly work of Stan and Ruth Burgess. The first section narrates the major highlights of Stan and Ruth's academic biographies, the second presents pioneering studies of biblical studies and church history, and the third offers application-based research and personal reminiscences.

Competency Based Interviewing Skills S Prabakar Kamath, 2009 There are a lot of organizations concerned about arresting attrition given the war for talent situation. Industry is confronted with ever increasing competition and crunch for Human Capital, which happens to be the only cutting edge for survival. If the intake process becomes a robust filter to eliminate wrong resources at the very entry point itself, it would certainly prove to be a great enabler. The end outcome should be 'Right Hire' and not 'Best Hire'. This book attempts to provide a working tool/guide for all the interviewers/practicing managers to better their interviewing skills. This book is intended to help the reader to build skills in the recruitment interview process as the main objective. As most managers involved in the interviewing process have very less or no training, this book intends to serve as a self help guide to those who wish to sharpen their skills at their own pace. As a by product, the reader would also get insights about A. Interviewing for An Assessment Center ProcessB. Behavioral Event Interviewing for competency mapping purposesC. Performance Interviews to understand the way an employee is performing D. In general interact with an individual as to what he/she stands for
