Searching for Excellence and Diversity Eve Fine,Jo Handelsman,2012-12 Recruiting, hiring, and retaining an excellent and diverse faculty is a top priority for colleges and universities nationwide. Yet faculty serving on search committees (or hiring committees) receive little or no education about the search process. Relying on both research and experience presenting hiring workshops to search committee members, the authors of this guidebook provide advice and recommendations for conducting an effective faculty search. The book includes practical suggestions for managing all stages of a faculty search as well as recommendations for ensuring that search committee members recruit women and members of underrepresented groups into their applicant pools and consciously avoid the influence of bias and assumptions in their evaluation of job candidates.

Big Podcast — Grow Your Podcast Audience, Build Listener Loyalty, and Get Everybody Talking About Your Show David Hooper,2019-03-12 Is it worth doing a podcast if nobody listens? You started your podcast because you want to: - Spread an important message - Share your passion - Make money But your podcast hasn't quite taken off like you thought it would. What happened? This book is for podcasters who can't quite figure out what they're doing wrong (and are ready to do things right). You'll learn: - Why your "natural personality" may be repelling to people and how to make it attract listeners to your podcast like a magnet (See p198) - What to do when a company tries to "lowball" you on advertising fees (do nothing, except send them the email on p424) - It's easy to screw up an interview. To be sure you don't run into any problems, use my "guest contract" on p311. - A six-word "trick" (learned from a 20-year radio veteran) that will instantly make you a better host (it's on p210) - 9 reasons to kill an interview before it happens — ignore these "red flags" and you'll be sorry (p299) - What Victoria's Secret models know about podcasting (even though you never hear them talk) — this lesson starts on p208! - Nervous on the mic? You have lots of company — 75% of podcasters to be exact. I give you a 5-step way to cure your "stage fright" on p229. - If you're scared of getting bad reviews, don't worry — I have three simple ways to handle critics on p236 (two of which can turn critics into fans) - Why copying top podcasters may be killing your podcast (I share the story on p116) and how to develop a podcasting style that works for you (and will attract more listeners) - My 3-step "episode teaser" formula — it's boring, but it works (get it on p110) - Thinking of doing a "daily" podcast? You must read p103 before you start. - Want to impress a guest? See the chapter starting on p321 for my 3-step followup "ritual" that will make being on your podcast unforgettable (and encourage guests to promote your episodes) And that's just the start … This book contains my complete system on how to attract listeners, deliver your message effectively, and build a big podcast. You can't build a big podcast on hope. But you can build a big podcast. And if you're ready to do just that, read this book.
