The Scandals of '51 Charley Rosen, 1999-01-05 The college basketball scandals of 1951 were to basketball what the 1919 Black Sox scandals were to baseball—a loss of innocence, after which the game would be permanently tarnished, its relationship to power and big money firmly established. In Scandals of '51, Charley Rosen identifies all the major figures—including players, coaches, gangsters, clergymen, politicians—that made up the elaborate network that controlled the outcomes to many games or protected those who did so. Rosen shows who got caught and who didn't, and what role class, race, and religion played in determining this.

Basket Ball - Its Origin and Development James Naismith, 2008-11 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1917 edition. Excerpt: ... (6) Columns for Discount on Purchases and Discount on Notes on the same side of the Cash Book; (c) Columns for Discount on Sales and Cash Sales on the debit side of the Cash Book; (d) Departmental columns in the Sales Book and in the Purchase Book. Controlling Accounts.--The addition of special columns in books of original entry makes possible the keeping of Controlling Accounts. The most common examples of such accounts are Accounts Receivable account and Accounts Payable account. These summary accounts, respectively, displace individual customers' and creditors' accounts in the Ledger. The customers' accounts are then segregated in another book called the Sales Ledger or Customers' Ledger, while the creditors' accounts are kept in the Purchase or Creditors' Ledger. The original Ledger, now much reduced in size, is called the General Ledger. The Trial Balance now refers to the accounts in the General Ledger. It is evident that the task of taking a Trial Balance is greatly simplified because so many fewer accounts are involved. A Schedule of Accounts Receivable is then prepared, consisting of the balances found in the Sales Ledger, and its total must agree with the balance of the Accounts Receivable account shown in the Trial Balance. A similar Schedule of Accounts Payable, made up of all the balances in the Purchase Ledger, is prepared, and it must agree with the balance of the Accounts Payable account of the General Ledger. The Balance Sheet.--In the more elementary part of the text, the student learned how to prepare a Statement of Assets and Liabilities for the purpose of disclosing the net capital of an enterprise. In the present chapter he was shown how to prepare a similar statement, the Balance Sheet. For all practical...

Why You Can't Make Free Throws the Mental, the Myth, and the Make Keith

Coleman,2018-06-11 Did you know that the average basketball team misses between eight and ten free throws in a single game? That equates to an overall loss of 12 to 14 points, where the average margin of victory in a basketball game is only 11.3 points. These are clearly make or break opportunities. Unfortunately, teams have defaulted to breaking. The simple truth is that coaches just aren't putting an emphasis on teaching free-throw skills. Why have coaches and teams thrown the free-throw to the wayside?There are numerous reasons behind what makes free-throws so difficult. Even players in the NBA and WNBA are constantly criticized for low free-throw percentages. There's one major reason behind this, and a lot of smaller reasons that contribute to what makes free-throws such a tough shot to make.That's why Coach Coleman set out to develop a method that works. He's helped players at every level increase their free-throw percentage and has been widely recognized for his success in doing so. They don't call him the Mr. Miyagi of free-throw shooting for nothing!Coleman's method is unique as it is targeted at helping coaches better coach their players. By helping these coaches teach their players to free-throw, he can single-handedly improve free-throw percentages and win rates. With Coach Coleman's help, no longer will games be lost at the free-throw line.
