ALL+ 2020 8 No.189 [LiveABC] 2020-07-30 ~ ALL+ Companies Jump into Coronavirus Fight Jay Sailors 8/4 When the coronavirus became a pandemic earlier this year, companies and business leaders around the world wasted no time in joining the fight against it. Their efforts, often creative, included making protective gear for hospitals and frontline health-care workers, producing vital equipment for saving patients' lives, and, perhaps most importantly, supplying the funds and resources needed to develop a vaccine. Back in March, when many places began experiencing shortages of essential supplies, some companies realized they could help by adapting their production equipment to new uses. For instance, when hand sanitizer became scarce, luxury goods company LVMH, owner of high-end brands like Louis Vuitton, Christian Dior, and Givenchy, used three of its perfume factories in France to turn out tons of hand-sanitizing gel for hospital workers. Other big names in fashion, including Ralph Lauren and Carolina Herrera, contributed to relief efforts by producing face masks and medical gowns. And if the correct material wasn't on hand, no problem. Fanatics, maker of baseball jerseys, stepped up to the plate and produced protective masks and gowns using the same material they normally use to make baseball uniforms. LVMH Louis Vuitton Christian Dior Givenchy Ralph Lauren Carolina Herrera Fanatics 8/5 A vital piece of medical equipment for treating COVID-19 patients is the ventilator, a machine that helps patients breathe. As the number of gravely ill patients grew, many hospitals were experiencing drastic shortages of this much-needed device. That’s when automobile companies General Motors, Mercedes-AMG, and Tesla stepped in to help by producing these lifesaving devices. Business leaders also joined in the fight, among the most noticeable being Twitter CEO Jack Dorsey, who put almost one-third of his $3.6 billion fortune into a coronavirus relief fund. Meanwhile, Bill Gates, Alibaba founder Jack Ma, and others together pledged over US$1.2 billion toward various efforts. The most important goal, though, has been finding a vaccine, and here the contribution of entrepreneurs isn’t lacking either. Through his foundation, Bill Gates plans to fund the construction of factories for seven coronavirus vaccine candidates, with the goal of selecting one or two that would most likely be successful. COVID-19 has produced the biggest health and economic crisis the world has experienced in decades. It’s good to know that such companies and business leaders have, with their global reach, contributed to the fight against this disease.
