Moon-face and Other Stories Jack London, 1906 JACK LONDON (1876-1916), American novelist, born in San Francisco, the son of an itinerant astrologer and a spiritualist mother. He grew up in poverty, scratching a living in various legal and illegal ways –robbing the oyster beds, working in a canning factory and a jute mill, serving aged 17 as a common sailor, and taking part in the Klondike gold rush of 1897. This various experience provided the material for his works, and made him a socialist. The son of the Wolf (1900), the first of his collections of tales, is based upon life in the Far North, as is the book that brought him recognition, The Call of the Wild (1903), which tells the story of the dog Buck, who, after his master's death, is lured back to the primitive world to lead a wolf pack. Many other tales of struggle, travel, and adventure followed, including The Sea-Wolf (1904), White Fang (1906), South Sea Tales (1911), and Jerry of the South Seas (1917). One of London's most interesting novels is the semi-autobiographical Martin Eden (1909). He also wrote socialist treatises, autobiographical essays, and a good deal of journalism.

Mmm! INSECTALICIOUS! Paula G., 2019-11-29 This slimy scenario started in our yard during the summer months. As we told the story over and over throughout the years it became such a family favorite. A great laugh for all of us. It well deserves to be preserved and shared as a family memoir with the rest of the world so you can laugh along with us. Little did I know this family favorite would make an author out of an inexperienced senior like me!!!! I have thoroughly enjoyed writing it, gathering artwork of my three daughters (which I have been saving for years) to make it a complete family project. So above all and most of all I want to thank my three precious illustrators from the bottom of my heart. First of all, for allowing me to include their artwork and secondly for all of their suggestions along the way..... Recently I asked them: If you can think of anything I should add to the story please let me know. I'm so grateful I asked because that's where I found the title of my book. From one of my precious illustrators. It pays to speak up and write a book!
