The People's Race Inc. Michael S. K. N. Tsai, 2016-11-30 The Honolulu Marathon debuted in 1973 as the shared vision of a maverick cardiologist bent on proving the benefit of long-distance running for cardiac patients and an impetuous mayor eager to prove Honolulu the equal of the top cities in the country. Over a span of forty-plus years, the race matured into one of the largest marathons in the world, a $100 million economic engine for its home state, and a launch pad for some of the most dominant long-distance runners in modern history. From its modest start as a community event for local amateurs, the race now regularly attracts 30,000 entrants—more than half from Japan—and boasts elite fields led by Kenyan and Ethiopian professional runners, each hoping to earn a share of a $150,000 prize purse. The People's Race Inc. captures the personalities, politics, and power plays behind the burgeoning growth of the Honolulu Marathon and provides a unique lens for understanding the complex history of the sport itself. Drawn from revealing interviews with those closest to the event, as well as exhaustive research, journalist Michael Tsai presents an insider's account of how organizers forged lucrative partnerships with foreign investors, helped initiate the age of African dominance of the marathon, and weathered some of the most bizarre challenges imaginable. The book also exposes the ways in which the marathon's expansive growth mirrored the explosive, at times bewildering, development of post-statehood Hawai'i.

The Honolulu Marathon Mark Hazard Osmun, 2006-05-01 The Honolulu Marathon. The third-largest marathon in the world. Over 30,000 runners in a single year. Over $100,000 paid to leading racers. But it didn't start out that way. In The Honolulu Marathon, Mark Hazard Osmun, recounts the origins of this amazing event and the motivations of the people who made it happen. From recording the promotional showmanship of the zealous Dr. Jack Scaff, to kidnapping world-class runners, to running in the race itself, Osmun became the principal chronicler of the marathon—an event that became the bellwether for the nation's subsequent Running Boom. Originally published in 1979, and told in a fast-paced, engaging, and sometimes irreverent style, The Honolulu Marathon placed the event on the international stage and now gives us perspective on the colossus it has become. Now with new material, an author preface, and an annually updated Race Statistics section, The Honolulu Marathon is a must-read for everyone who has—or will—run the race.

Born to Run Barbara Rudow, 2006 Tells the story of Brittany Young, a burn victim from Hawaii who became one of the top young runners in the United States, with color photographs. At the age of 7, Brittany Young had a horrible accident. Her legs and feet were burned so badly that doctors weren't sure if she would ever walk again. Years later, after enduring thousands of hours of treatment and therapy, Brittany can not only walk she can run! In fact, she is one of the top high school runners in the country. This is the remarkable true story of a determined young girl from Hawaii who simply wouldn't quit. Her competitive spirit and natural talent transformed her from a burn victim to a competitive runner who was: Born to Run.

Racing with Aloha Fred Haywood,2021-05-04 “Haywood has a blend of the intellectual, philosopher, athlete, adventurer, quiet warrior, and curious student. This book entertains, informs, and inspires.” —Laird Hamilton No one knows who first put a sail on a surfboard, but everyone would agree that Fred Haywood pioneered the sport of windsurfing. Few know he is also an Olympic contender who swam a record-breaking backstroke alongside his friend Mark Spitz. Before he discovered speed sailing, he surfed with the likes of Gerry Lopez, exploring exotic undiscovered surf spots around the world. Only his friends know how growing up on the island of Maui influenced him to carry his success with humility and generosity, stressing camaraderie over competition and preferring fun over fanfare. Racing with Aloha is a delightful story that will enchant anyone who loves or longs for the timeless mystique of the Hawaiian Islands. Young readers will delight in the story of a youth who swam with sharks—by accident, of course—and who was as surprised as his coach and teammates to find himself featured in Sports Illustrated magazine. Water aficionados will long for the days of surfing undiscovered beaches. And the countless windsurfing enthusiasts who trekked to Maui in the 1980s, following in Fred’s wake, will relish the memories he shares of windsurfing Ho’okipa, the legendary beach still boasting some of the biggest waves in the world. “From being one of the best swimmers on the planet to becoming the fastest man on a windsurfer and so much more, I am honored to know someone as humble and inspiring as Fred Haywood.” —Kai Lenny

From Honolulu to Brooklyn Joel S. Franks,2022-09-16 Arguably the most famous baseball team outside of the major leagues in the early twentieth century, the Travelers from Hawai’i barnstormed the American mainland from 1912 to 1916. During their journeys and after, team leader and star Buck Lai and his teammates encountered racism and colonialism while asserting their humanity in a variety of ways.

Born to Run Barbara Rudow,2006 Tells the story of Brittany Young, a burn victim from Hawaii who became one of the top young runners in the United States, with color photographs.

RUNNING FROM INSIDE OUT Jerry Lee,2020-11-29 Enthusiastic Hiker and Trail Runner Jerry has participated in trail running events for more than twenty years across the United States, Canada and Southeast Asia. He has a passion for trail running, approaching nature and exploring the world's mountains, forests and fields. He has journeyed from Hawaiian volcanoes to the American Rocky Mountains; from Canadian mountains to the jungles of Taiwan, Vietnam, Malaysia, and other Southeast Asian countries. He also led students from the Hawaii Pacific State University Mountaineering Society in volcanic and mountain in-depth trail running activities. Appreciating the beauty and majesty of nature and inviting my friends to explore it with me gave me the greatest sense of achievement. The beauty of nature is like the sun in the mountains; because you can't absorb all the sun on your own, so share it with everyone! Mother Nature is always there waiting for you. As long as you are willing to return to the mother's arms, she will provide endless positive energy. Why do I like climbing? 1. To get to know myself better, 2. To see the beauty of heaven and earth, 3. To meet friends who love nature and extend the spirit of adventure challenges to all corners of the world. This book mainly addresses my first-hand experience of exploring the mountains and waters of eight countries, including the United States, Canada, Japan, Thailand, Malaysia, Indonesia, Singapore, Vietnam, through independent travel, trail exploration, national Hash trail running, foreign mountaineering trail competitions, as well as promoting and organizing Crazy Beer Trail running activities. I hope to introduce more friends to hiking, promote international cultural sports exchange and finally share the experience of years of trail and mountain running. I draw on inner strength, experiencing the challenges of nature, to achieve the best balance of mind and body. Running from the inside out!!!

The Barnstorming Hawaiian Travelers Joel S. Franks, 2012-01-23 This book chronicles the Hawaiian Travelers, a barnstorming baseball team of multiethnic, multiracial Hawaiians, who played across the continental U.S. from 1912 through 1916. This team took on college, semi-professional, minor league, and African American nines. In the process, they won the majority of these games, while subverting venerable racial conventions. It also describes the experiences of some of these players after 1916 as they sought baseball careers on the East Coast of the mainland. This book sheds light on a generally untold story about baseball, race, and colonization in the United States during the early decades of the 20th century.
