Hussin A.Rothana

Personal Data Keeper Sandra Fry,2017-05-12 I created this Personal Data Keeper after searching for this type of item for myself and my family. Most of the similar items I was finding were cumbersome and required real estate on a shelf somewhere conspicuous in my home. The last thing I wanted was for my personal data to scream look at me when friends and family came to visit. I also did not want something I had to scurry around my home to get my hands on or provide directions to someone else in the event of an emergency. I wanted something concise, portable, quick with the necessary answers and most importantly, something that took up less space. I wanted to be able to keep it in my bedside drawer, to tuck in my luggage when traveling alone or to toss in my purse if necessary. What I certainly did not want was a stack of loose papers or a thick binder. On top of that, I wanted it to be 'Common Sense' Affordable! I couldn't help but believe that if this was something I needed and wanted, it was most likely something others could use, as well. So I sat down and designed this PDK for YOU and ME. I hope you find this PDK a useful tool for storing your important personal information and passwords.
