Complete Job-Search Handbook Howard E. Figler, Ph.D.,2013-10-22 Now in its third edition, Howard Figler's classic job-search handbook puts you in the driver's seat, on the road to where the jobs really are. Figler's unique program has been revised and updated to let you not only decide what your ideal job may be, but also discover exactly where that job is. The program has been expanded to describe thirty lifetime job-hunting skills, as well as Twenty Lessons from the Front, a list of potential pitfalls for job seekers to be aware of. This third edition enables you to: - Determine what your true work and life values are - Pinpoint the job skills you already possess, even those you aren't aware of - Find jobs when there seem to be none - Learn how to be at your best in job interviews - Utilize a professional career counselor's advice to troubleshoot potential problems Figler writes for all stages of career development, with action plans for the first-time job seeker, the professional looking for a change, the suddenly laid-off, and the person returning to the workforce after a long absence. Howard Figler knows the right job is out there, and with clarity, humor, and reassuring good sense, he shows you how to find it.

The Academic Job Search Handbook Julia Miller Vick,Jennifer S. Furlong,2013-06-12 For more than 15 years, The Academic Job Search Handbook has assisted job seekers in all academic disciplines in their search for faculty positions. The guide includes information on aspects of the search that are common to all levels, with invaluable tips for those seeking their first or second faculty position. This new edition provides updated advice and addresses hot topics in the competitive job market of today, including the challenges faced by dual-career couples, job search issues for pregnant candidates, and advice on how to deal with gaps in a CV. The chapter on alternatives to academic jobs has been expanded, and sample resumes from individuals seeking nonfaculty positions are included. The book begins with an overview of the hiring process and a timetable for applying for academic positions. It then gives detailed information on application materials, interviewing, negotiating job offers, and starting the new job. Guidance throughout is aimed at all candidates, with frequent reference to the specifics of job searches in scientific and technical fields as well as those in the humanities and social sciences. Advice on seeking postdoctoral opportunities is also included. Perhaps the most significant contribution is the inclusion of sample vitas. The Academic Job Search Handbook describes the organization and content of the vita and includes samples from a variety of fields. In addition to CVs and research statements, new in this edition are a sample interview itinerary, a teaching portfolio, and a sample offer letter. The job search correspondence section has also been updated, and there is current information on Internet search methods and useful websites.

The Job-Hunter's Survival Guide Richard N. Bolles, 2012-04-04 One hundred pages of lifesaving advice for people out of work. When over ten million people have needed help with their job-hunt—or with figuring out what to do with their life—there is one person they have turned to, more than any other. He is Richard N. Bolles, author of the #1 job-hunting book of all time, What Color Is Your Parachute? His name is well-known around the world. Just during the last twelve months, he has appeared in Time (“10 Ideas Changing the World Right Now,” March 2009), U.S. News & World Report (deemed “savior of the nation’s unemployed,” October 2008), NBC’s Today Show (broadcast in April 2009), and many other publications and shows. His book was the #1 best-seller on BusinessWeek’s paperback list as recently as last November. Never has his advice been more sought than during these brutal economic times. He has responded by writing a completely new book: The Job-Hunter’s Survival Guide, designed particularly for people who are hanging on the ropes, who haven’t time to do a lot of reading but need help desperately—and now. Early reviews have called this little Guide “brilliant” and “tremendously helpful.”

The Job Hunting Handbook Harry Dahlstrom, 2016-02-22 In 48 easy-to-read pages, The Job Hunting Handbook walks job hunters through every step of the job hunt. They'll learn how to prospect for jobs, land interviews, impress hiring managers, and win job offers.

JOB HUNTING HANDBOOK CLARE. WHITMELL, 2019

The Job Hunters Handbook Albert Locke, 2017-02-13 Need A Job? How to Find and Win Your Dream Job With The Job Hunter's Handbook It's really true, isn't it? They say it's really easy to get a job when you're already working and don't need one! When you are unemployed, however, and trying to live on the meager unemployment checks it can get real scary real fast! The checks won't cover a house payment or rent, let alone utilities and minor details like food for your kids! What's a person supposed to do? What happened? Somewhere between the great depression and the information age, job hunting wasn't the stressful task it is today. A guy like your Dad or your grandfather worked the same job clear up to retirement. After putting in his 20, 30 or 40 years his boss would give him a gold watch and a pension for his faithful years of service. Sadly, that is no longer the case. Every day we see more and more jobs being eroded by more technology or actually re-assigning your position to someone half way across the world! Instead of planning on putting in your time then enjoying the fruits of your labor, you are lucky if the job lasts more than a year or so before you get the pink slip that tells you that the company is re-aligning their resources and your position is being eliminated! The problem is that this will hit most people when they least expect it and this process repeats itself every single day across the country. So, what can you do about it? One of the first things you should do is become pro-active instead of reactive. The decision to eliminate your job or lay you off wasn't made in a day. It's the result of a process. You just aren't told about it until it's too late, leaving you in a bind. We aren't saying that you should not be loyal to your employer, just never have all your eggs in one basket. Learn how the job hunting process works today and always have a back up plan in place. Yes, have a plan in place. That old adage we mentioned in the first sentence is true. . . it's really easy to get a job when you're already working and don't need one! It's a hunt - know your prey! Remain on top of the current market trends that affect your company's industry. Keep your ear to the ground for rumors or innuendo and be ready to go to Plan B at a moments notice. Grab your copy of The Job Hunter's Handbook, and follow all the instructions. Do this and you can avoid a lengthy period of unemployment! Actually put yourself in the position of always anticipating a worse case scenario. Do this and you will avoid stress knowing full well that a new job is just a few days away. That's the problem with most employment issues. People just wait around for the axe to fall and then they have to become re-active because they don't have a clue where to begin. When laid off the first place most people go is to the classified section of their newspaper. That may be okay but there is so much more that can be done. The Job Hunter's Handbook will show you: * How to identify your skill set * How to hunt for a job * Define your objective * Prepare a professional resume * 7 Steps to improve interviewing skills * How to use networking to accomplish your task * Job seeker FAQs * Thinking outside of the box Finding a job should not create a stressful environment. The Job Hunter's Handbook will be there to help you if you do lose your job, but better yet, use it to keep yourself in a pro-active mode so you can immediately put the principles to work when the axe falls. The peace of mind is well worth the few bucks to be prepared! Happy hunting! What Color is Your Parachute? Richard Nelson Bolles, 2004 What Color Is Your Parachute? has been the best-selling job-hunting book in the world for more than three decades, in good times and bad, and it continues to be a fixture on best-seller lists, from New York Times to BusinessWeek. It has sold more than 10 million copies and has been translated into 20 languages around the world. Parachute is streamlined this year to help those struggling in these hard economic times acquire the job-search tools they need faster and more efficiently. Its life-saving information is, as always, updated and relevant to today's job market. Career guru Richard N. Bolles leads job-hunters to find meaningful work. He asks, WHAT skills do you most love to use? WHERE-in what field-would you most love to use them? And HOW do you find such a job without depending on agencies and ads? This book is not only about finding a job in hard times. It's about finding your passion. In the words of Fortune magazine: "Parachute remains the gold standard of career guides." "Ideally, everyone should read What Color Is Your Parachute? in the tenth grade and again every year thereafter." -Anne Fisher, Fortune "It was one of the first job-hunting books on the market. It is still arguably the best. And it is indisputably the most popular." -Fast Company "Parachute is still a top seller and it remains the go-to guide for everyone from midlife-crisis boomers looking to change their careers to college students looking to start one." -New York Post "There's Parachute, and then there's all the rest. . . . a life-changing book." -Career Planning and Adult Development Journal What Color Is Your Parachute? is the world's most popular job-hunting guide, with 10 million copies sold, in 20 languages. This New York Times and BusinessWeek best seller answers such questions as: "I was just laid off from my current job. What do I do first?" See page 3. "What are the most helpful job sites on the Internet, out of the thousands that are there?" See page 5. "What are the five best-and worst-ways to hunt for a job?Ó See page 24. ÒI haven't a clue how to do salary negotiation. Help!Ó See Chapter 7 (starting on page 99). ÒIn general, what are employers looking for?Ó See page 18. ÒWhat interview questions can I expect to be asked, and how do I answer them?Ó See Chapter 6 (starting on page 71). ÒI'm over 50. What special problems do I face when I go job-hunting?Ó See Chapter 10 (starting on page 143). ÒHow do I survive financially while I'm out of work, and how do I find health insurance when I have no employer?Ó See page 11. Turn to the last page of the book for more questions. RICHARD N. BOLLES has been a leader in the career development field for more than thirty-five years. He was trained in chemical engineering at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and holds a bachelor's degree cum laude in physics from Harvard University and a master's in sacred theology from General Theological (Episcopal) Seminary in New York City. He lives in the San Francisco Bay Area with his wife, Marci.
