Jukeboxes Kerry Segrave, 2015-10-06 This work traces the history of the jukebox from its origins in the invention of the phonograph by Thomas Alva Edison in the 1880s up to its relative modern obscurity. The jukebox's first twenty years were essentially experimental because of the low technical quality and other limitations. It then practically disappeared for a quarter-century, beaten out by the player piano as the coin-operated music machine of choice. But then, new and improved, it reemerged and quickly spread in popularity across America, largely as a result of the repeal of Prohibition and the increased number of bars around the nation. Other socially important elements of the jukebox's development are also covered: it played patriotic tunes during wartime and, located in youth centers, entertained young people and kept them out of "trouble." The industry's one last fling due to a healthy export trade is also covered, and the book rounds out with the decline in the 1950s and the fadeout into obscurity. Richly illustrated.

The Jukebox and Me Robert Wesley Dean, 1995 An interesting dialogue by a person that has been associated with coin operated music devices since 1942. An unusual approach to the workings of the industry. Some technical material, but can be understood by novices. A wealth of anecdotal material with great humor. A must for anyone interested in the hobby of collecting jukeboxes. This is a refreshing new approach dealing with the everyday trials & tribulations experienced by one involved in a labor of love. All models & manufacturers discussed. A look into the motives of the design engineers & the sales departments. Published by: Deans Designs, Inc., P.O. Box 358, Lizella, GA 31052. 912-935-2721.

American Jukebox Vincent Lynch, 1990 Photographs depict full-sized jukeboxes, wall boxes, table models, and speakers manufactured by Wurlitzer, Rock-Ola, Seeburg, and other leading jukebox manufacturers from 1937 to 1948.

Jukebox David Merville, 2008 Shows all kinds of music and those who listen to it.

The Soundies Mark Cantor, 2023-04-19 The 1940s saw a brief audacious experiment in mass entertainment: a jukebox with a screen. Patrons could insert a dime, then listen to and watch such popular entertainers as Nat King Cole, Gene Krupa, Cab Calloway or Les Paul. A number of companies offered these tuneful delights, but the most successful was the Mills Novelty Company and its three-minute musical shorts called Soundies. This book is a complete filmography of 1,880 Soundies: the musicians heard and seen on screen, recording and filming dates, arrangers, soloists, dancers, entertainment trade reviews and more. Additional filmographies cover more than 80 subjects produced by other companies. There are 125 photos taken on film sets, along with advertising images and production documents. More than 75 interviews narrate the firsthand experiences and recollections of Soundies directors and participants. Forty years before MTV, the Soundies were there for those who loved the popular music of the 1940s. This was truly music for the eyes.

Going My Way, Yankee Doodle Dandy, Hunchback of Notre Dame, and Meet John Doe. From 1948 to 1952 he joined The Modernaires and was on Bob Crosby's Radio Show five nights a week, along with the Andrews Sisters, Dick Haymes, and Jerry Gray's Orchestra. From 1952 through 1956 he was a regular on The Bob Crosby TV Show five days a week for five years. From 1957 to 1960 he joined the Your Hit Parade TV Show in New York. Then from 1965-69 he signed with the Modernaires for The Red Skelton TV Show and won a Grammy in 1968 with the Alan Copeland Singers for Mission Impossible-Norwegian Wood. Known for his vocal arranging, Alan has written charts for Sarah Vaughan, Ella Fitzgerald, Steve Lawrence & Eydie Gorme and was the choral director for Bing Crosby's Christmas TV Shows for over two decades. Since 1995, Alan has rejoined the Modernaires and still performs on a part-time basis with them. This is his story!

Johnny's Jukebox Trivia John Robinson, 2002-12-17 Jukebox Johnny presents 1,001 of his best trivia questions about all of your favorite performers from the Golden Age of Rock & Roll. The questions in this book will thrill, entertain, amuse, and stump you! Even hard core fans will learn new tidbits about their favorite performers and how they came to make the music that they did. Come on, take this challenge, and find out just how much you really know about the music that shaped your life and the people who made it!

Invisible Jukebox Tony Herrington, 1998 Forty star guests (Philip Glass, Elvis Costello, Ice-T and others) are played an eclectic and provoking series of records, which they are asked to identify and comment on, with no prior knowledge of what it is they will hear. The conversations that ensue are often controversial and always entertaining.

Widener Matthew Battles, 2004 Since 1915, the Harry Elkins Widener Memorial Library has led a spirited life as Harvard's physical and, in a sense, its spiritual heart. With copious illustrations and wide-ranging narrative, this book is not only a record of benefactors and collections; it is the tale of the students, scholars, and staff who give a great library its life.
