The Mysterious Wu Fang #3: The Case of the Yellow Mask

Robert J. Hogan, 2016-09 A thousand years ago the man with the golden mask had ruled a continent; today, men scoffed at the legend. A golden face with hypnotic powers? Impossible!... But Wu Fang, dragon lord of crime, smiled wisely; he wanted that mask--wanted it enough to blaze a murder trail across half the globe, to weave a death snare which only three white men--Val Kildare, Jerry Hazard and Cappy could dare combat!

The Legend of the Golden Raven K. Ancrum, 2017-10-31 K. Ancrum's The Legend of the Golden Raven novella, part fairy tale and part gritty reality, follows a boy as he descends into madness. August and Jack weren't meant to be friends. One is a misfit with a pyro streak and the other a golden boy on the rugby team. But as their relationship intensifies, Jack slowly begins to lose his mind—taking readers on an intimate journey into the fantasy kingdom creeping into the edges of his world. As the novella moves back and forth between a medieval legend and our own, contemporary world, nothing is as it seems. The boys alienate everyone around them as they struggle with their sanity and as Jack's quest to fulfill a dark prophecy begins to consume them both . . . Devour this companion novella to The Wicker King. An ImprintBook Praise for The Wicker King: "An eerie and mesmerizing thriller that questions the spacewhere reality and perception overlap, The Wicker King is a spine-tingling read that will have you riveted." —Caleb Roehrig, author of Last Seen Leaving and White Rabbit "An eerie piece of realistic fiction whose characters revel in intense emotions." —Kirkus Reviews

A Hundred Ways to Kill William W. Johnstone,J. A. Johnstone,2012 Young Matt Bodine and Sam Two Wolves are back in their 16th rousing adventure. This time, they're heading to Mexico to rescue six pioneer girls taken captive by merciless white slavers. Original.

Troy Costas Komborozos,2017-09-12 The goddess weeps for me. She places the golden mask on my face as her glittering tears fall like fluttering rose petals through air that trembles with light. Her eyes are fixed upon the golden mask. The mask shines, ornamenting the grim contours of my loveless visage. Moments ago, Clytemnestra drove daggers through me. Her murderous eyes fell upon the merciless stream of blood coursing through the now-uninhabited citadel of my body. The sight of the sacrificed Iphigenia was still emblazoned on her grieving mind. My wife watched as my life flooded out me, and I slowly felt myself being swept by a dark tide into the underworld. I felt a golden world slip away, and all that is left of it is the mask that now covers my lifeless face. I was told that the mask would allow my face to remain untouched while the rest of my body decomposed. I was told that a thousand years from now, someone will remove the mask and marvel at the immortal complexion underneath. The goddess continues to weep for me as everyone else has ceased to pour wordless whispers of longing upon my empty throne. The mask blissfully seared into my flesh and began its act of preserving my features so that they would live on. Destiny wears a mask, and now it will reveal its visage to me. It removes its mask as it stands before. I am young again, but this time I am wearing the golden mask. I realize that destiny will show its face to me as my face remains hidden behind gold. Moments ago, destiny entered the throne room with a shroud. My mask allowed me to see each movement destiny made. I wonder whether things will be different now. I already know everything that will transpire in the future: the abduction of Helen, the sacrifice of Iphigenia, the siege of Troy, the death of Achilles, and my own murder at the hands of Clytemnestra. I wonder whether I can prevent my daughter from being needlessly sacrificed. I wonder whether the voices of the gods will no longer push me to the brink of madness. Now, destiny holds its mask. The moment I look into its eyes, I know that everything that happened will happen again. I am wearing the mask now because I will wear it during my funeral. It is, after all, a funeral mask. Everything will happen as before because whether destiny is masked and unmasked is of no consequence to me anymore. Death has already come, for destiny spoke it.

The Mask of Circe Henry Kuttner, C.L. Moore, 2014-08-17

A psychiatrist travels to a world of magic and gods in this take on “Jason and the Argonauts” from the Hugo Award-nominated author of Earth’s Last Citadel. Jay Seward remembers a former life in a land of magic, gods, and goddesses—a time when he was Jason of Iolcus, sailing in the enchanted ship Argo to steal the Golden Fleece from the serpent-temples of Apollo. But one night the memories become startlingly real, as the Argo itself sails out of the spectral mists and a hauntingly beautiful voice calls: “Jason . . . come to me!” And suddenly he’s on the deck of the Argo, sailing into danger and magic . . . “A fantasy in the grand tradition of Merritt and the other giants.” —Arthur Leo Zagat, author of the Tomorrow series Praise for Henry Kuttner “One of the all-time major names in science fiction.” —The New York Times “A neglected master.” —Ray Bradbury, author of Fahrenheit 451 “Kuttner is magic.” —Joe R. Golden Mask Bernie Unrau,2008-09-11 Dr. Cassandra Evans has just completed her Ph.D. thesis in the antiquities. She is desperately seeking the position of head curator at the National Museum in Athens. Mr. Navdoupolis is displaying the latest, most sophisticated security system to a team of distinguished scholars. Cassandra is privileged to catch a glimpse of rare beautiful works heavily guarded at the museum. She is struck by the Mask of Agamemnon's beauty and radiance. But upon closer examination she discovers it's a carefully crafted forgery, much to the chagrin of the museum staff who defends their expensive acquisition. To confirm her theory, they take the coveted treasure to Darian Ceramicus, a local alchemist who verifies her claim. What has become of their priceless piece? The wild goose chase through the Mediterranean commences. Cassandra bumps into Dr. Gum on holidays and reveals her dilemma. The dynamic duo digs a little deeper and soon discover a diabolical network dealing in stolen artwork. They probe further and soon disclose an exclusive expensive private clinic which offers its services only to the extremely fortunate members of an elite club. Could the exorbitant fees be paid for in purloined priceless artworks disguised as fakes? Or is there a deeper darker secret to the exclusive enterprise? The president, a professed connoisseur of the arts, and his entourage happen to be in Greece to attend the summer festival of coveted Greek tragedies. Has he requested or required medical treatment and been exposed to the exclusive services unbeknownst to the citizens?

Mirror Opens Ancient Temple Door. William Van Zyl, 2023-12-29 I have produced a fictitious short story about how Lara and Alexander - the two archaeologists, found the elusive El Dorado temple and unearthed the Golden Mask. In this resource - including the exciting legend of the elusive city of El Dorado - I look at the story, the gold, the treasure, the golden mask, and a modern-day escape room. I provide prompts for using technology - in the context of creating an El Dorado-themed escape room. Inspired by my visit to an escape room in Hamilton (NZ) in December 2023, I show how technology, like digital sensors, surveillance cameras, and more, could be used in escape rooms. I use a simple microprocessor - like the Arduino Uno - to show how this microprocessor could detect light and switch a rack and pinion - powered by an electric motor - to open a door. Just like Lara and Alexander opened the door by reflecting the shaft of daylight from the cave roof onto the mirrors and the Sun motif. I use the Arduino, an LDR (light-dependent resistor), a relay, and an electric motor to show how a door in an escape room can be opened. This resource could be helpful to teachers and students. The focus is integrating different subject areas for a lesson for high school students. For example, the brief is to design an El Dorado-themed escape room. I focus on technical aspects like art, design, and electronics (digital sensors, surveillance cameras, servos, racks and pinions, and more) to detect, switch and move doors. The focus is also on how to create a light sensor (LDR - light-dependent resistor) to detect when a mirror reflects light that suddenly comes from a crack in the cave (an electrical light switched on after a symbolic puzzle is solved). Improving and developing collaboration and solving real-life problems is another aspect I investigate. I look at the design of a board game—context: Escape room. Developing creative and innovative skills of students and teachers. I also touch on renewable systems: Installing solar panels, wind turbines, inverters, and 12 Volt (DC) batteries - on a micro-scale - to power an escape room or a model of an escape room. Lastly, I provide links to cave ecosystems. I include the Waitomo Caves in New Zealand (famous glowworms). See the ideas and concepts for possible lessons for students in this article. It is challenging to layer, embed, and integrate different subject areas into one or a set of lessons.
