International Financial Statistics, April 2006 International Monetary Fund. Statistics Dept., 2006-04-04 International Financial Statistics provides a complete library of continuously updated international statistics on all aspects of international and domestic finance. The monthly print edition contains over 1,000 pages of statistical data in each issue. It reports, for most countries of the world, current data needed in the analysis of problems of international payments and of inflation and deflation, i.e., data on exchange rates, international liquidity, money and banking, interest rates, prices, production, international transactions, government accounts, and national accounts. Information is presented in country tables and in tables of area and world aggregates.

A Cramer-King History ,2001 Philip King, Sr. was born 2 October 1709 in Devonshire, England. He emigrated in about 1730 and settled in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He married Catherine in about 1731 and they had eight children. He died after 1783. His granddaughter, Hannah Rambo, was born 22 April 1756 in Philadelphia. She married Adam Cramer, Sr. (1745-1819), son of Adam Cramer and Sophia, in 1776. They had eight children. Descendants and relatives lived mainly in Pennsylvania.

Focus on Fees David Stager,Council of Ontario Universities,1989
Presents an historical account of the quantitative changes in tuition fees relative to inflation, instructional costs, family incomes, and student aid, both in Ontario and in other jurisdictions. The study also provides an analysis of the private and social returns to university education by program of study; a review of factors affecting access to university education, including the effectiveness of student aid in financing tuition fees; and a discussion of policy options with respect to tuition fees and student aid, including those practised in other jurisdictions, and the implications of their use in Ontario. The focus of this study is on the tuition fees charged to Canadian residents for undergraduate programs in Ontario universities.
