African Traditional And Oral Literature As Pedagogical Tools In Content Area Classrooms Lewis Asimeng-Boahene,Michael Baffoe,2013-12-01 For a long time, many American educators and educational stakeholders have drawn their ideas for educational reforms from ideas generated in Europe and Asia for the changing demographics of America's diverse classrooms. This book is therefore motivated by a bold attempt at advocating for the revision of existing pedagogic fora and the creation and addition of new fora that would provide for the inclusion of thoughts, perspectives and practices of African traditional oral literature in the pedagogical tools of content area classrooms especially in North America. The articles that are presented in this book provide theoretical frameworks for using African traditional oral literature and its various tenets as teaching tools. They bring together new voices of how African literature could be used as helpful tool in classrooms. Rationale for agitating for its use as ideal for pedagogic tool is the recurrent theme throughout the various articles presented. The book explores how educators, literacy educators, learners, activists, policy makers, and curriculum developers can utilize the powerful, yet untapped gem of African oral literature as pedagogical tools in content area classrooms to help expand educators repertoire of understanding beyond the 'conventional wisdom' of their pedagogic creed. It is a comprehensive work of experienced and diverse scholars, academicians, and educators who have expertise in multicultural education, traditional oral literature, urban education, children's literature and culturally responsive pedagogy that have become the focus of U.S. discourses in public education and teacher preparation. This anthology serves as part of the quest for multiple views about our 'global village', emphasizing the importance of linking the idea of diverse knowledge with realities of global trends and development. Consequently, the goal and the basic thrust of this anthology is to negotiate for space for non-mainstream epistemology to share the pedagogical floor with the mainstream template, to foster alternative vision of reality for other knowledge production in the academic domain. The uniqueness of this collection is the idea of bringing the content and the pedagogy of most of the genres of African oral arts under one umbrella and thereby offering a practical acquaintance and appreciation with different African cultures. It therefore introduces the world of African mind and thoughts to the readers. In summary, this anthology presents an academic area which is now gaining its long overdue recognition in the academia.

The Legend of Billy and the Magic Stick Ivanna Hope,2015-05-03 This story is about a young boy with a pure heart who was chosen by an old man - The Guardian of The Magic Stick - to destroy a huge ugly giant that was terrorizing the local village in the valley of Santar. Farmer John awoke one morning to find some of his goats and sheep missing. Farmer John noticed huge foot prints and an awful smell filled the air. As Farmer John searched for his missing animals he soon discovered others were missing animals as well, and some reported that they could feel the ground shake and the smell was very unpleasant. Then Farmer John realized the legend that he had heard about as a young boy was true, and now the giant was in the valley of Santar. Farmer John called a meeting and all of the village people showed up. That is where the story of Billy and The Magic Stick begins. As Farmer John spoke about what had happen and about the legend he heard as a small boy, the towns people shouted, What legend? At that moment a voice came from the back of the crowd. Everyone turned to see who was speaking, and there stood an old man with long silver hair and a beard to match. In his hand was a strange looking stick, he had appeared like magic. The old man begin to speak, The legend is true, and the giant will take more than your animals, he will take your children as slaves, and force them to dig for silver and gold. We must stop the giant before it is too late. I have been sent to find the one who can destroy the giant. He must have a pure heart. The old man raised his strange looking stick and pointed it toward the mountain where the giant lives, the stick starts to shake and move in his hand. Then The Magic Stick stopped pointing a bright beam of light straight at Billy Harper. Billy, you are the chosen one! and the old man laid The Magic Stick in Billy's hands. You were chosen for your pure heart and your kindness to other people and the wild animals. You can only use The Magic Stick to help others and protect the wild animals of the forest. The people were stunned that The Magic Stick had chosen such a small boy to destroy the giant. They quickly turned to ask the old man - why, but he was gone. Just like magic, he had disappeared. From here the story reveals the power of The Magic Stick and the journey that Billy must take. The Magic Stick will protect Billy and provide all his needs. Magic characters will appear in Billy's journey, to assist him in defeating the giant. The story is action packed from start to finish and has already proven to hold young and old alike, spellbound.
