The Personal Income Tax Base Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development. Committee on Fiscal Affairs,1990 This report presents data on the personal income tax base broken down by decile groups for seventeen OECD countries on the basis of a common methodology. For each country it indicates which sources of income are subject to tax and which are not and summarizes the different ways in which governments provide tax reliefs. After discussing the problems posed by the use of different concepts and the unavailability of some statistical data, the report provides estimates of average tax rates at different income levels in each country.
