Yadi's Tale Dominique Thomas,2021-09-06 Some people look up to doctors and lawyers, but it was never like that for me. I had my family, and I had the club. All I ever wanted to be was a Burner Boy. For Yadero life wasn't always easy. From losing his mother at the age of three to being thrown into the foster care system he'd experienced it all. But sunny days came when he was finally adopted at the age of ten. All Yadi wanted to do was live his best life, hang with his crew and ride his bike. He didn't have time for anything else until his amber eyes fell upon the beautiful Liberty. Liberty wasn't as lucky as Yadi. She had a troubled childhood and a stressful life as a young adult. She didn't have the luxury to be like every other twenty-year-old. She worked two jobs to provide for her home and also attended school full time. No sleep, long days and stress was her life until a quiet, handsome biker drove into her world. Liberty and Yadi will be faced with many outside variants that don't want to see them together. From backstabbing, family drama and gunplay they will be pushed to the test. They can either rise up and fight for all that they can be together, or they can fold. Bike life isn't easy and when you add rival clubs, angry women and scorn men to the life its nearly unbearable. Welcome to the world of the Burner Boyz.
