'80s Action Movies on the Cheap Daniel R.

Budnik, 2017-03-24 The 1980s was the decade when the action film as it's now known came into being. Nonstop, big-budget excitement became the standard as epic adventures like Raiders of the Lost Ark and The Road Warrior set the tone for the summer blockbusters of Sylvester Stallone, Arnold Schwarzenegger and Chuck Norris. Homages (and ripoffs) made with lesser budgets followed every hit, especially with the advent of direct-to-video releases. Providing detailed commentary on 284 films, this book explores the excitement, audacity and sheer weirdness of '80s low budget action cinema, from the American Ninja series to dime-a-dozen barbarian pictures to such bargain-basement productions as The Courier of Death, Kill Squad and Samurai Cop.

Not So Quiet on the Set Robert E. Relyea, Craig Relyea, 2008 An extraordinarily entertaining look inside the film industry -Pierce Brosnan, award-winning actor and producer A veteran of over fifty years in the film industry, Robert E. Relyea gives a behind-the-scenes, first-person look into Hollywood's moviemaking landscape during the pre- and post-Kennedy years in America. Not So Quiet on the Set is Elvis Presley wishing for a normal life during a break in recording the soundtrack for Jailhouse Rock. It's dealing with street gangs and studio politics while making West Side Story. It's trying to stay alive while working side by side with John Wayne on The Alamo. It's crashing an authentic Nazi warplane against a hillside in Germany during The Great Escape. It's getting fired by the studio while filming Bullitt in San Francisco and it's battling runaway budgets and Steve McQueen's demons in France while making Le Mans. Not So Quiet on the Set presents rare insights into the mechanics and politics of filmmaking and helps define a dynamic period in Hollywood history. A unique collaboration between father and son, it is a real-life adventure that not only illustrates how the movie industry really works but provides a revealing portrait of Hollywood's loss of innocence.

A Beautiful Place to Die Philip R.

Craig, 2016-07-26 First in the series that's "a breath of fresh air with a touch of murder most foul"—now a movie series on Hallmark Channel starring Jesse Metcalfe (Denver Rocky Mountain News). Ex-cop J. W. Jackson searches for answers after a mysterious and deadly boat explosion on Martha's Vineyard. During his career as a Boston cop, Jeff "J. W." Jackson saw enough of the evil that men do to last a lifetime. So he retired to the serenity of Martha's Vineyard to spend his days fishing for blues. But when a local's boat mysteriously explodes off the coast, killing an amiable young drifter, Jackson finds himself reluctantly drawn back into the investigative trade. Praise for the Martha's Vineyard Mysteries "Fun . . . an enjoyable book . . . perfect for hot weather relaxing." –Los Angeles Daily News "An exciting adventure . . . [that] lets the reader become an islander for a while." –The Houston Post "Refreshing . . . entertaining . . . a nicely crafted mystery." –Knoxville News Sentinel "Spending time with Craig on Martha's Vineyard is the next best thing to vacationing on the island itself." –Minneapolis Star-Tribune "Craig knows his angling and his sailing . . . but he also knows how to make engaging characters." –The Philadelphia Inquirer

Projecting Politics Elizabeth Haas, Terry Christensen, Peter J. Haas, 2015-04-10 The new edition of this influential work updates and expands the scope of the original, including more sustained analyses of individual films, from The Birth of a Nation to The Wolf of Wall Street. An interdisciplinary exploration of the relationship between American politics and popular films of all kinds—including comedy, science fiction, melodrama, and action-adventure—Projecting Politics offers original approaches to determining the political contours of films, and to connecting cinematic language to political messaging. A new chapter covering 2000 to 2013 updates the decade-by-decade look at the Washington-Hollywood nexus, with special areas of focus including the post-9/11 increase in political films, the rise of political war films, and films about the 2008 economic recession. The new edition also considers recent developments such as the Citizens United

Supreme Court decision, the controversy sparked by the film Zero Dark Thirty, newer generation actor-activists, and the effects of shifting industrial financing structures on political content. A new chapter addresses the resurgence of the disaster-apocalyptic film genre with particular attention paid to its themes of political nostalgia and the turn to global settings and audiences. Updated and expanded chapters on nonfiction film and advocacy documentaries, the politics of race and African-American film, and women and gender in political films round out this expansive, timely new work. A companion website offers two additional appendices and further materials for those using the book in class.

BACKGROUND CHECK: the Craig Naughtin Story Craig Naughtin, 2017-06-09 By my early 20s, I had already far exceeded what most people take half their lives to accomplish. I had sold coke to everybody from your average real estate agent to professional bodybuilders competing in the Olympia. I had control in various Walgreens pharmacies where all I had to do was make a phone call and any prescription I wanted would be waiting for me with no questions asked. I was already a home owner by the time I was 20 and had access to any type of car I wanted. I had the new counterfeit money in my hands the same time the new federal money was printed. I graduated high school a year early after failing two grades and never even setting a foot in high school a day in my life. I've won numerous car shows and my work has also made the cover of magazines and now I sit in a federal prison for a crime I intentionally got caught for, knowing it was my only way out...this is my story...

Brian Donlevy, the Good Bad Guy Derek Sculthorpe, 2017-01-25 Brian Donlevy (1901–1972) was an underrated film actor with surprising range and a little-heralded gift for comedy. Often typecast as a villain, he played the definitive bad guy in such films as Destry Rides Again, Union Pacific and Beau Geste (all in 1939). He showed his versatility in the title role of Preston Sturges' political satire The Great McGinty (1940) and impressed both New York critics and the Soviet government as the coolly authoritative Major Caton in Wake Island (1942). Donlevy was fondly remembered as globe-trotting U.S. Special Agent Steve Mitchell in the television series Dangerous Assignment (1952) and as Professor Quatermass in two acclaimed science fiction films. This first ever biography of Donlevy covers his colorful early life as a boy soldier, his years playing comedy roles on Broadway and his long career in Hollywood.
