Includes miscellaneous newsletters (Music at Michigan, Michigan Muse), bulletins, catalogs, programs, brochures, articles, calendars, histories, and posters.National Directory of Record Labels and Music Publishers Barbara Taylor,Kevin Berg,1994-05 This unique directory contains the addresses and phone and fax numbers for more than 4,000 major and independent labels and music publishers. Updated annually, the book is cross-indexed by music genre and includes a step-by-step guide that explains how to submit music to a publisher.National Directory of Record Labels and Music Publishers Barbara Taylor,1996-01-01 Here is an indispensable source book for those interested in getting recognized in the music industry. This is a music directory containing more than 4000 major and independent labels and music publishers with title, address, phone and fax numbers.School of Music Programs University of Michigan. Livingstone,1985*Percussive Notes* ,1987Handbook of Literature for the Flute James Pellerite,1963 Revised 3rd edition. An annotated list of solos, graded method materials, reference reading, flute ensembles, music for alto flute, piccolo and bass flute. Over 3,500 entries, representing more than 1,700 composers and authors. Used throughout the world by flutists, artists, teachers, libraries and music dealers.Flute Music by Women Composers H Alais Boenke,1988-10-19 For the flutist wishing to perform music composed by women, this annotated catalog will come as a most welcome addition to the numerous flute bibliographies now available. Boenke has spent four years gleaning all possible sources to come up with several hundred listings of composers from three centuries and 40 different countries. When the information is available, she lists publisher and the OCLC system record number after the routinely listed title and instrumentation. In addition to the alphabetical listing are indexes for instrumentation, title, publisher, and composer. A short list of sources is heavy on LC and NUC catalogs as well as the several standard sources on women in music. This volume could serve as an example for instrument-specific music bibliographies. For flutists it is priceless. Choice This book, an alphabetical listing of flute music by women composers, provides ready access to flute music that is published or available in manuscript form. Unlike any previous handbook of the flute repertoire, it is devoted entirely to the works of women, the vast majority of whom are not mentioned in the standard catalogs of flute literature. A carefully compiled study, the volume examines the quantity, variety, and scope of women's work in this genre and includes composers from more than forty countries, spanning three centuries. It contains works for solo flute, duets, flute and piano, concertos, woodwind quintets, other chamber ensembles, or any work that employs soloistic use of the flute. It also provides biographical information on the composers, publishers, availability of works, and annotations on the works themselves. All compositions are indexed by title and by instrumentation, and publishers and contemporary composers are listed with current addresses, to facilitate the ordering of music. The first published volume of its kind, this unusual work will draw attention to valuable and unknown repertoire in this genre and provide the opportunity for women's works to be heard more often. It will be useful in all university music libraries and conservatories, and it will be a valuable resource for professional flutists, teachers of flute, and researcher in women's studies.Buyer's Guide to the Piano, Organ and General Music Trades ,1996*Complete Guide to Instrumental Jazz Instruction* John Kuzmich,Lee Bash,1984Art-song in the United States, 1801-1987 Judith E. Charles King provides access to a great deal of critical substantive writing about Martin's work and to the considerable body of writing by the composer himself. Many of the most important writings, derived from articles, lectures, letters, program notes and interviews, are now collected into several monographs in French with some parts in English and German, all of which have been indexed here. Comprehensive coverage is given to articles in English, and excellent work written in German, French, Dutch, and Italian has been highlighted also. The volume consists of a biography of Martin, a cataloging of the composer's works and performances, and a 229-item discography followed by two separate bibliographies that list writings by and about Martin. Two appendixes and an index complete the work. As the only comprehensive introduction in English to Frank Martin and his work, this reference will assist future researchers and stimulate the interest and curiosity of others to learn more of this composer's life and work.Stern's Performing Arts Directory ,1987The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1987The School Musician Director and Teacher ,1983*Clavier* ,1985Whispering the Strategies of Language: An Mental Quest through Music Publisher 8112
