The Physical and Virtual Space of the Consulting Room Deborah L S

Wright,2022-06-27 In this thought-provoking book, Deborah Wright examines the role of both space and objects as they become manifest in the psychoanalytic process and looks at how the role of the consulting room in the therapeutic process is both primitive and transferential. Wright explores spatialisation as simultaneously being a psychological projection of meaning and as physically acting upon the environment, utilised to master the undifferentiated, relentless, internal pressure of instinct. Throughout The Physical and Virtual Space of the Consulting Room, she considers the spatial aspects of work with patients by foregrounding the importance of the consulting room and its contents, including the impact of changes of consulting room, travelling, and in working virtually. Illustrated with clinical material and hand-drawn artwork, Wright orients the reader in the new territory by going beyond the existing literature that considers the objects and space of the consulting room solely as transferential aspects of the analyst. The interdisciplinary approach in this book calls on psychoanalytic theory and technique as well as philosophy, history, archaeology, and anthropology, which will be of great interest to all psychoanalytically orientated therapists as well as anyone, clinical or non-clinical, who makes use of psychoanalysis.

Navigating the Journey of Aging Parents Cheryl A. Kuba, 2013-05-13 Navigating the Journey of Aging Parents proposes an entirely unique approach to the field of gerontology, giving dependent care receivers a voice. Caregivers will be made aware of what care receivers truly want during life's final chapters. Exploring issues of housing, spirituality, personal care and death, Cheryl Kuba has created a testament to the dependent elderly. This book draws on numerous interviews with aging people and discusses common caregiver mistakes and interpretations, what a caregiver should expect when an aging parent moves in, and how to care for an aging parent from afar. Kuba also delves into such phenomena as guilt, role reversal, changing family dynamics, financial stress, and caring for oneself while caring for another. The 22.4 million elderly people being cared for in the United States comprises the fastest growing segment of the population, making this reference on the opinions and concerns of care receivers invaluable.

and the darkness is staring back. All Ash wants at university is a second chance at a normal life, but her new home in the small town of Blackstone has secrets of its own. Ash's quest for answers leads her to a hidden group of sorcerers who warn her against the ruthless magical police who watch the barrier between the Darkworld and our own world. With monsters lurking in the local night clubs and the guy she's crushing on possibly being evil, it's all Ash can do to keep her ordinary friends safe from the supernatural dangers shadowing her every move. As the danger climbs higher, Ash must uncover the truth behind the darkness watching her, before it threatens everyone she knows and cares about. When Jesus Came Into My Room Esben Rokholm,2010-07 This book is a charming story of a young child's experience when he in 1960, together with his big family, immigrated to Canada - far away from their homeland Denmark. We follow him from his early years, as he struggles to adapt to a new culture - all is written in a touching and moving way, but not without a stroke of humour as well. It all leads up to the year of 1971 where his life took a completely and unexpected turn, beginning from that night in January when Jesus Christ entered his room! The year turned out to be a year of divine visitation for the author. This book is a great testimony about God's love and his readiness to reveal himself even to those who don't seek him. My faith in God has been strengthened greatly by reading this book. God is able to make himself known to persons, whether they seek him or not. Esben Rokholm is my co worker in the ministry in my country as well as my friend and my coach and I thank God for him! I can warmly recommend this book! Pastor Ioan Groza, Amara, Romania. Esben Rokholm graduated from W.L.U. Ontario, Canada. He lives with his wife, Karin, in Denmark and has three children. Most of the years he has been in the ministry in Denmark and is now active in church planting and human aid in Romania. esbenrokholm@hotmail.com
