All Women Are Healers Diane Stein,2011-03-02 "By the study, experimentation and practice of natural healing, women are changing and charting the future of health care. Despite heavy resistance or lack of recognition from patriarchal medicine, they are nevertheless making positive changes that will continue and increase. Women's emphasis on one-to-one work practiced in mutual agreement and participation is very different from mechanized and big-money medicine, and has results and successes far beyond expectations. The emphasis on self-healing returns health care to the consumer, to women's lives and bodies, for the first time in centuries. The medical system cannot control a movement held in the hands of women, though it may try. Women are taking control again of healing, our daughter-right, for the first time since the matriarchies and the Inquisition."--from the Introduction

The day of fast drug-induced cures and relief is slowly fading and giving weight to alternative medicines and therapies in order to cure the body. These ancient remedies and therapies have been in existence all over the world for millennia. The ancients swore by them but then they did not have powerful drugs, having a detrimental effect on their biochemical system. That was the time when they believed in not overloading their systems with pills, drugs and medicines, which supposedly cured them of their body's ills. Thanks to this dependency since childhood on medicines, because we see our elders eating them by the handful, is it a wonder that a number of us have lost the capacity of getting cured naturally? Much before powerful drugs came onto the scene, Mother Nature was already providing her living creations with excellent rejuvenating and healing systems which would replenish the wounded and damaged cells with healthier tissue and heal the body on its own.
