Medium Rare Linda Lauren,2013-09 From the time Linda Lauren was a small child, her special gift started manifesting itself in the “indoor movies” that danced before her third eye. Thankfully, her Italian-American family was able to embrace their daughter's curious abilities. In fact, the uncanny activities of the young fourth-generation psychic medium were strikingly similar to those of her paternal grandmother in Italy. Now Lauren shares her own experience, from first visions to mainstream career psychic medium, in her new memoir, Medium Rare: The Memoir of a Fourth Generation Psychic Medium. An enthralling account of self-discovery amid strange phenomena, it's certain to engage readers interested in creating a happy life by following their inner guidance, no matter how far removed it is from society's norms. From that first view of the images inside her eyelids to her ultimate acceptance of her birthright, Lauren chronologically recounts the events surrounding her gift that served as stepping-stones to her eventual realization of the magnitude of her psychic capacity. Throughout her experiences, the author was fortunate to have deeply supportive parents, who were able to shepherd her through her uncommon childhood with dignity, respect, and unflagging faith. Soon, Lauren's psychic tendencies were in full swing. She courted ghostly visitors in her home. She frequently conversed with her mom's friend Jeannie. When a premonition about a falling painting at her Catholic school proved to be pan out, she was removed from the school, but not before safeguarding her fellow students from the hazard. And, while she enjoyed the popularity her skills afforded her at high school and beyond, as she came of age, she chose to play them down. When, as an adult, she finally accepted her gift as her calling in life, Lauren emerged as a leading psychic medium, who has helped police investigations, led paranormal excursions, and is the owner and operator of Linda Lauren's Embracing The Universe Metaphysical Center in Mountainside, New Jersey. Her story not only reveals the fascinating path of a psychic medium in realizing the full potential of her natural gifts, it is a rousing testament to the deep satisfaction anyone can channel by tapping into their individual attributes.

Psychic Blues Mark Edward,2012-08-14 Mark Edward is an equivocator, fibber, and mountebank. Which begs the question: if a liar admits to lying, can he be telling the truth? He is a literate, informative, intellectual, a student of the psychology of humans, a foe of those who would defraud the public for personal gain, and as an author and practicing psychic, he is first and foremost an entertainer.—Joel Moskowitz, International Brotherhood of Magicians Mark Edward admits that for years he exploited believers who wished to connect with supernatural ideas and sad family members who missed dead loved ones. Now Edward is a magician who works the Haunted Castle in Hollywood and is also on the editorial board of Skeptic magazine, where he reveals the means of psychic scamsters. This entertaining book is at once a confessional and instructional regarding human belief and those who exploit it. Though Edward believes that most practitioners of the psychic business are out-and-out scam artists, he also counters the skeptic belief that the supernatural is a lie. Both skeptic and skeptical of skepticism, Mark Edward has worked as a 900-number psychic, ghost hunter, and Hollywood Magic Castle medium. He has also worked vigorously to debunk psychic frauds and currently works on the editorial board of Skeptic magazine.

Call Me Crazy Marsha Lord,2016-05-06 From Adventures of a Psychic When I lived in Mesa, Arizona an eighteen-year-old went missing. Police teams were frustrated because they could not find the body. She had gone on her first date. Sheriff Joe had summoned many psychics to try to solve the mystery and they were sending the police in areas I knew were not accurate. I kept demanding that she was in Paradise Valley, a rich upscale neighborhood near Scottsdale. They reluctantly went there and found her body in a garbage dumpster. She had been badly raped and cut up in pieces. I felt relief since her family had been suffering for nearly 10 days not knowing where their daughter was. It gave them peace of mind knowing they could begin the process of closure in this horrific tragedy. This was my first and last time solving crimes. The reason that working on crime scenes is so difficult is that I am an empath. An empath feels everything involved in the crime. I decided I would leave crime solving to the justice department. So writes author and psychic Marsha Lord in this riveting memoir that is equal parts biography, adventure tale and exposition of the intuitive powers she inherited from her grandmother and father. Her life experiences take her from Woodstock to Kent State to travels abroad as she shares her gift and insights. Psychics are merely human beings with a special gift that they constantly give away, writes Marsha Lord. It's a chance for me to pay it forward.
