Lead Your Child to Success Roxanne Wing,2021-08-08 Roxanne Wing, M.B.A., intentionally spent twenty years nurturing her children into successful adults. She started with the end in mind, leading her children through academic and leadership experiences that provided proven character and competitive advantages. Through the years, friends asked, How do you find these growth opportunities? Finally, Roxanne shares the secrets she discovered. Now you can take advantage of her experience and lead your child to success.

Parenting MBA Joshua Leibowitz,2023-05-02 If Harvard Business School and McKinsey & Company raised children together, their parenting strategies would be the same ones given in this easy-to read book of advice. When the COVID-19 pandemic hit, Harvard Business School graduate and former McKinsey & Company partner Joshua Leibowitz found himself off the road, out of his old routine, and into quarantine with his wife and children. Suddenly, his home life-particularly parenting-became the most challenging project of his career. Could the skills he acquired from leading organizations and consulting for Fortune 500 companies help him become a better parent? How could he build a stronger, more loving family? The incredible family time gave Leibowitz the opportunity to expand on the core concepts he had gained from a career as a consultant and business leader in order to use them to create a blueprint for becoming a better father and spouse. Parenting MBA candidly delivers relatable anecdotes, honest advice, and winning strategies to help parents and children see each other clearly, support one another completely, and become the best versions of themselves. Putting these ideas into practice will help parents fulfill their cherished goals of building lifelong positive relationships with their children and raising good people who can reach their full potential.

The Family Edge Gibb Dyer,2019-07-01 What's the most important asset any entrepreneur or business owner needs to succeed? After more than thirty years consulting for Fortune 100 companies, international organizations, and family businesses around the world, Gibb Dyer confirms that the secret ingredient to business and entrepreneurial success is not an MBA from a great school, a fantastic marketing plan, or even a blue ocean strategy. It's access to three types of capital: financial, social, and human. Dyer's three decades worth of research and data conclude statistically that the most effective and successful entrepreneurs have immediate access to these three—all within their family. A groundbreaking book for any business owner, family business, or budding entrepreneur, The Family Edge provides clear evidence and powerful tools to help you leverage the asset you need but have probably not paid enough attention to: family capital.

The 30 Day MBA Colin Barrow,2019-01-03 If you want to accelerate your career development and transform your skillset, but without the price tag and two-year commitment of the MBA, this is the book for you. The 30 Day MBA covers the 12 core disciplines of business: accounting, finance, marketing, organizational behaviour, business history, business law, economics, entrepreneurship, ethics and social responsibility, operations management, research and analysis and strategy. It provides the tools and techniques you need to seize business opportunities and implement strategies successfully. Complex concepts are explained in simple and practical terms, helping you to apply high level concepts to the real-life world of business. The 30 Day MBA also contains insightful case studies from leading organizations including IKEA, Cisco, Cobra Beer, Heinz, Shell, Hotel Chocolat and Chilango, to help keep you right up-to-the-minute with current trends and inspire you to explore new concepts. This book equips you with essential hard knowledge, but also helps you understand how business and current thinking is shifting in today's turbulent global markets, and broadens your mind with the knowledge and confidence to excel in a competitive career.

International bibliography of research in marriage and the family Joan Aldous,1967

Contesting Institutional Hegemony in Today's Business Schools ,2016-09-05 This book brings together a group of critically-orientated early career researchers from global business schools to investigate a series of timely questions pertaining to the impact that institutional pressures have on junior academics – particularly those who conduct 'critical' or non-mainstream research.

Handbook of Marriage and the Family Suzanne K. Steinmetz,Marvin B. Sussman,2013-11-11 The lucid, straightforward Preface of this Handbook by the two editors and the comprehensive perspectives offered in the Introduction by one of them leave little for a Foreword to add. It is therefore limited to two relevant but not intrinsically related points vis-a-vis research on marriage and the family in the interval since the first Handbook (Christensen, 1964) appeared, namely: the impact on this research of the politicization of the New Right! and of the Feminist Enlightenment beginning in the mid-sixties, about the time of the first Handbook. In the late 1930s Willard Waller noted: Fifty years or more ago about 1890, most people had the greatest respect for the institution called the family and wished to learn nothing whatever about it. . . . Everything that concerned the life of men and women and their children was shrouded from the light. Today much of that has been changed. Gone is the concealment of the way in which life begins, gone the irrational sanctity of the home. The aura of sentiment which once protected the family from discussion clings to it no more We want to learn as much about it as we can and to understand it as thoroughly as possible, for there is a rising recognition in America that vast numbers of its families are sick-from internal frustrations and from external buffeting. We are engaged in the process of reconstructing our family institutions through criticism and discussion (1938, pp. 3-4).
