You know it's there don't you? Hiding behind the noise in your head is the potential…the awesomeness…the wisdom…the intelligence…….the power. Who, just who is ready to stand up and say "It's my time!"? Who, just who is ready to come out and say "I'm not going to go to my grave like this!"? Will it be you? Unlocking the Youniverse, your internal universe, is imperatively important and simple and yet so few do it. Just imagine, everything you could ever need or want is available to you right now and all you need to do is unclutter your mind. When you unclutter you will find an awesome power. This is not an ego power, a power over others, a 'I'm stronger than you' type thing. It's actually the power to say 'NO'. It's the power to not let people and events push you off-centre. It's the power to hold fast to the truth and not let go. It's the power to say no to the self-limiting beliefs that keep you where you are. It's the power to wait patiently for just the right opportunity to come along. It's the power to say no to those parts of living that suck the life out of us. Unsolicited praise for the book ... 5 stars Robert really cut through to the nitty gritty ... Not a lot of fluff here. You won't get lost in new age concepts. Direct and to the point. I've reread this book 3 times and enjoy it as a friendly reminder of the work that needs be done in order to reap the rewards. Refreshing voice to a well worn topic. If you want to understand the workings of the mind in regards to happiness, this book will offer it up on a platter. 5 stars "I have read many, many self-help books about happiness, but this author really and finally explains not just what happiness is, but how to actually get there, and the false beliefs we've had all our life that prevents us from being happy. Now I know what to do, and now I see that most of the other authors were right too about the basics, but didn't explain the real reasons behind it. Thanks Robert Baohm for this book, and I invite you all to read it."
