John Hourihan

2095: Part I Brad Livesay, 2013-03-26 The year is 2090. The New Island Republic has never fought a war. Within a matter of weeks, a simple fight for territory will spawn a conflict that engulfs a world. Learn about the colony world Tribute and her fledgling nations as each struggles to survive. This is the first part of the War of 2095

2095 - Ready Rocket Six Keith R Rees, 2023-02-21 Ready Rocket Six is the exciting second installment in the sci-fi odyssey, the 2095 Series. It is 1986 and five years after Nick's dramatic time travel escape from 2095. He and Kristy have married and have a little girl of their own, Sephora. Life has returned to normal, so it seems until the sinister guardian of time, Cici, returns to take her revenge for Nick's cunning escape and her subsequent banishment. With the aid of her evil twin, Cici makes another attempt at snatching Nick away but instead captures his wife by a cruel twist of fate. Nick is forced to travel back to 2095 and even further into the galaxy to thwart the evil Cici's plans, leaving Sephora to the possibility of an orphaned alternate existence... The sci-fi adventure continues!

2095 - Chronicles of Sephora Keith R Rees, 2023-02-21 Chronicles of Sephora is the riveting third installment in the sci-fi odyssey, the 2095 Series. Five-year old Sephora is left in the care of the guardians of good after Nick is forced to travel back to 2095 to rescue his wife, Kristy, deep in the cosmos. To fool the evil guardian, Ganymede, Sephora is hidden in the future at a remote school in the mountains of Thailand in the year 2081. At Saechao Manor, Sephora's alternate life begins where she is forced to grow up in a foreign land far from her twentieth century existence. As Sephora grows, learning the ways of the East, she discovers her own incredible talents. She is forced to grow up fast with the gut-wrenching reality of not having her parents. The young kids at Saechao become her new family instead. Sephora's life evolves in this touching yet incredible adventure all the while her destiny looms in the shadows with her own role in her parent's dramatic escape from the far reaches of the galaxy...

arrival at Satellite Two. She is desperate to speak to him after fifteen long years, but is forced to stay away, so he can safely return to 1981 unaware of her existence there. However, the CIC knows something is amiss after matching her DNA to Nick's. Sephora's life is turned on end and suddenly finds herself banished from society. She cleverly makes her comeback as a rogue warrior while Nick dramatically returns to 2095, launching his second odyssey to rescue Kristy. Sephora's destiny comes full circle in a final battle royale deep in the Jovian system. Lives and the fate of society hang in the balance as the time trackers bravely race to Europa to aid her parents in their dramatic escape. A sci-fi thrill-ride and adventure!

WARSEC 2: Oscillation (2095-2097) Ash Gawain, 2018-10-02 2095. UN Diplomat Ralf Åhman has successfully championed the creation of the World's Agency for the Regulation of Space Exploration and Colonization (WARSEC) to keep outer space under UN supervision. Outrageous! thinks Michael Vahlroos, whose corporation V-Space has seen its business opportunities shrink. In the short term, however, V-Space's business is closely tied to WARSEC's success. And while the relationship between WARSEC and V-Space oscillates between competition and cooperation, the inhabitants of the overpopulated Earth have to make do with ordinary ordeals: natural disasters, massacres, and wars. OSCILLATION (2095-2097) is the second book of the WARSEC Interstellar Series, the story of a race to the stars between private corporations and the United Nations organization. It is a grounded space odyssey for readers interested in geopolitics, science, and the future of mankind.

WARSEC 1: Regulation (2094-2095) Ash Gawain, 2018-10-01 2094. The successful testing of the Alcubierre metric makes faster-than-light travel possible. For Michael Vahlroos, CEO of V-Space, this is the start of a new era. Not only will his company be able to sell new spaceships, but it will also spearhead the exploitation of extraterrestrial resources, a must to ensure welfare to our overpopulated earth. Private corporations are the right players to boldly do what no-one has done before. For UN diplomat Ralf Åhman, however, the added value of private corporations in space is overrated. Has not the failure of the Martian colony been caused by a greedy entrepreneur, leaving the last Martian survivor on her own? Space has to be better regulated. REGULATION (2094-2095) is the first book of the WARSEC series, a race to the stars between private corporations and the United Nations organization. It is a grounded space saga for readers interested in geopolitics, science, and the future of mankind.

The Mustard Seed John Hourihan, 2017-03-06 In 2095, the god we worship is the wrong god; the science we believe in is not complete, and middle-aged Raphael Aronson lives a satisfied life as a sixth-level campaign formulator in a high-rise building in New Clovis City, USR. He is about to find out that technology is the same as human genetics, scripture is science, war is the same as peace, and God is not God. He will find it all in his search for the reason why his friend has been murdered for information he found by accident. Aronson works creating political resumes that will be filled, after the fact, by men and women in bogus elections where the winner is nearly always determined in advance of the vote. With the help of a few friends, he dives into the city that has no police force, no cars, no cell phones, rife with hedonism in an attempt to discover who killed his friend, only to find that those who profess they are trying to make the republic great are pawns, helpless against the total power that was revealed in the stories of the scriptures and the text books of science. He is led by a mysterious recluse, who calls himself a watcher, on a trip through human history and prehistory--how mankind progressed from a curious little biped to become one of the most powerful entities on earth, from scientific Adam and Eve through the Renaissance and into the third millennium AD where the politics of greed and falsehood nearly destroyed mankind in a flash of worldwide war. And he finds the top of the food chain, but it is not who he expected. He learns how science and religion have always told the same story, and he will find out how the FoxP2 gene, the theory of relativity and the parable of the mustard seed are the answers to our current existence and the explanation of our future.

2095 Jon Scieszka,2004-04 While on a field trip to New York's Museum of Natural History, Joe, Sam, and Fred travel one hundred years into the future, where they encounter robots, anti-gravity disks, and their own grandchildren.

The Mustard Seed 2095 John Hourihan,2023-08-22 In 2095, the god we worship is the wrong god.Raphael Aronson is not concerned with things like religion and the meaning of life. His work is to create political resumes for people running in bogus elections where the winner is nearly always determined in advance of the vote. But when his friend is found dead, and it looks a lot like murder, he no longer cares about work. He wants to find a murderer.With the help of a few others, he dives into the city that has no police force, no cars, no cell phones, rife with hedonism, only to find that those who profess they are trying to Make the Republic Great are pawns, helpless against the total power that was revealed in the stories of the scriptures and the textbooks of science. On a journey led by a mysterious recluse, who calls himself a Watcher, Raphael learns the true history of humankind: how they progressed from a curious little biped to become one of the most powerful entities on Earth, from scientific Adam and Eve through the Renaissance and into the third millennium AD where the politics of greed and falsehood nearly destroyed humans. When he discovers the top of the food chain, it is most definitely not who he expected.

Yours Truly, 2095 Brian Paone,2015-06 Is it a love triangle if time travel is involved?

Justicia 2095 T. L. Blakely,2017-11-11 Online justice is a reality when the court of public opinion comes to order in Justicia 2095. Public jury trials are conducted from the comfort of home in real-time. A Ready Player One for the courts. But this freewheeling Justicia is fed by its own set of tolls. Wyrand Stark, historian and Justicia Counselor, finds himself caught in its rapidly spinning gears and must race to save himself by proving the difference between law... and justice.

The Star Series Of 2095 Lukas Eberhard,2016-05-21 Donnie Livingston is a nobody. The world he lives in is dominated by the work of robots and androids that he oversees at a car factory in his hometown. His mundane life is dull and he is not able to afford a flat for himself and still lives with his parents. The system does not offer him a chance to improve, until he stumbles over an advertisement. The local football team is desperately looking for new players, as few people are still interested in sports, except for the leagues in which androids and robots play against each other. Use of steroid or other illegal improvements are outlawed but are daily fare, making it difficult for a new player to get on a team and stay there, as there is constant pressure to perform and improve. He gets on the team and improves himself, but things are not looking up for him. The payment is still insufficient, and his relationship to his father is declining, so he starts thinking about seeking his luck elsewhere. He wants to immigrate to one of the colonies. There, on Moon, Mars and Venus, things are still old-fashioned, but the teams are competitive and working hours long underground on Moon, where he is pushing pig feces around for money. And there is something about Earth and what has become of it with all the androids and robots that he cannot leave behind, like a secret or following him around wherever he is going.

Pulse Rate 2095 Nicholas Sinclair Schrage, 2014-10-01 In the future the government controls everything--even people's heartbeats. Baron Stamos has to uncover the truth before society is destroyed. In 2095, freedom is gone, money no longer has value, each person has a biometric implant, everyone serves the local government in one form or fashion...and time travel is used everyday by the government of the New World Order. Baron Stamos works for the Agency: a powerful arm of the government. His boss just dropped a hot one into his hands: a couple from the past have been convicted for altering their pulse rates. Under the Pulse Rate Amendment they are scheduled for execution using the Eradication Removal Process--a process that removes a person's existence while preserving their pulse rates for future use. The key to this madness is the inventor of the biometric implant chip, a rebel in hiding: the Black Market Broker. Baron has to find the pieces of this growing puzzle using investigation and time to help the Agency overturn voracious laws created by the government and return society to its previous chaotic state. But not everyone wants Baron to succeed. Now he's on the run--there isn't any safe place or time he can escape to...

Imagine All the People David Paul Ingalls, 2004-09-23 A journey into the future with a group of lovable young thinking people. A mystery, an adventure, hints of evolution and a national bankruptcy to overcome. Is this the future we'll expect? You will be surprised, some of this has already come to pass.

Regulation (2094-2095) Ash Gawain, 2018-09-27 2094. The successful testing of the Alcubierre metric makes faster-than-light travel possible.
