Top 10 Reasons Why People FAIL to Recover from Addiction - M. Fenton

Deutsch, 2017-11-20 It is now estimated that an alarming 50 million people worldwide die each year from drug overdose or health related issues. Suicide claims another one million victims, or one death every 40 seconds - mainly from those who couldn't find their way out from the grips of their unhappiness and dis-ease. But, this blight pales in comparison to an even bigger problem: Another two billion people struggle around the globe with depression and anxiety disorder. Of this, 220 million are children --- something that they learned from their parents or caretakers. The cost to society, to our families and loved ones is beyond staggering. Clearly, the untreated misery business is crying out for help! The recovery industry in the U.S. alone has exploded to $35 billion in size. There aren't enough beds and addiction counselors in rehabs and detoxs to meet the escalating need. Another $1 - $2 Trillion more is sadly wasted each year on health care remedies that don't work. God only knows what the figures and statistics are worldwide. As the world gets more complex, challenging and stressful, more people young and old alike -- are falling victim to substance and behavior abuse, and untreated misery. Addiction and suicide are now among the top 10 leading causes of death in the U.S. -- and that doesn't include the many others who never even make it into recovery. Addiction to opioids, and the resurgence of heroin use worldwide has reached epidemic proportions among young people. Each week, I see several people disappear and die from the many 12-step meetings that I attend. Others report about the loss of loved ones that never even made it into recovery. And, that doesn't include the many people around us who love us that we take hostage in the process of our pain and misery. People can't handle the underlying pain and futility in their lives, and prefer to numb or anesthetize themselves to avoid dealing with reality. The fear of change keeps the addicted deep in the throes of the bondage of self. Sadly, the huge percentage of people relapsing after being in and out of detoxs and rehabs is all too familiar with so many people. And, now with the introduction of Fentanyl and other other toxic cuts to heroine and other opioids, death is the dismal reality for so many, as death from drug overdoses has now doubled to tripled in nearly all Western countries, according to recent and very alarming reports. Adding insult to injury is the promised, new war on drugs by the Trump administration and senior officials already in bed with drug companies and distributors, government all over again, and relapse from addiction has become all too commonplace. . When is this vicious cycle of death and unstated misery ever going to end? Clearly, there is no cure and the struggle to stem our own addiction is elusive for most. The real question is: Are you next While the process of recovery and life-transformation can be miraculous for some those first time winners, the majority of people experience relapse after relapse and die unwittingly, never knowing why. I know, as I nearly died twice myself until I finally surrendered to the truth of my life and accepted the fact that the many forms of addiction can maim and kill anybody if we don't get recovery right. It is undoubtedly an ugly and fatal disease if not arrested completely. There are many reasons why people fail to get and stay recovered, here are the Top 10 Reasons that most anyone who struggles with addiction will be happy to share with you. What really matters is how do you avoid relapsing back into your addictive misery and what are the necessary skills to deliver you to a happy, joyous and free life - the life you were always intended to live. M. Fenton Deutsch leads you on the journey that will change your life!

Healing from Toxic Relationships Stephanie Moulton Sarkis, 2022-07-26 From the psychologist and author of Gaslighting comes a practical recovery plan outlining ten foundational steps to true healing. Surviving and escaping a toxic or abusive relationship can often only be part of the struggle. Long after, survivors often struggle to heal; your self-esteem may be damaged, you may feel rage and betrayal, and you may punish and/or blame yourself. The author of Gaslighting and specialist in toxic behavior, narcissistic abuse, and personality disorders, Dr. Stephanie Sarkis has seen it all--and she is here to help you understand how to move forward. In Healing from Toxic Relationships, Dr. Sarkis extends compassion and knowledge to survivors, helping you understand the underpinnings of toxic behavior and how to find peace. Highlighting ten essential steps, Dr. Sarkis provides survivors with an accessible framework that can be applied to anyone preparing to heal: 1. Block or Limit Contact 2. Create Your Own Closure 3. Forgive Yourself 4. Establish Boundaries 5. Talk to a Professional 6. Practice Self-Care 7. Reconnect 8. Grieve 9. Look Outward 10. Prevent: Keeping Toxic People Away Anyone who is in a toxic relationship—whether it's with a romantic partner, colleague, family member, or friend—deserves a way out and a path forward. Recover your losses by the power of god Peter I. O, 2021-01-06 This book is written to quicken your mortal body, stair up your spirit, and encourage you to stand to your feet and recover all that Satan and his cohorts have stolen from you. You can't afford to allow the Devil to retain the things he has stolen from you and continue stealing from you. There is a popular saying that; "every day is for the thief, but one day is for the owner." I don't know how long the enemy has been stealing from you; it is time to recover and reclaim your losses. Many people lose one thing or the other every day because Satan steals every day. As God gives us daily benefits, so Satan gives us daily problems. Unfortunately, the majority of these set of people who had lost great riches and virtues to Satan, are making little or no effort to recover their belongings from the Devil. In John 10:10 Jesus said; "The thief does not come except to steal, and kill, and destroy” Many people are conversant with this scripture, yet they ignore this divine alarm. In this scripture, Jesus informed us that Satan is a thief and he comes to steal. It is the nature of Satan to steal. If he succeeds in stealing, it becomes easier for him to kill and destroy. This menace of Satan and his cohorts have reduced the potency of the virtues which God deposited in the lives of His people, and also render the destiny of many people useless. Satan has robbed many people of their salvation, gifts, talents, marriages, jobs, businesses, properties, and even their lives. There are certain facts about a thief you should know; 1) A thief comes without notification. 2) A thief comes to rob you of your goods and belongings. 3) A thief can do anything to get what he wants, even if it means killing someone. 4) A thief is cruel and wicked. 5) A thief sees stealing as a business and not an act of evil. 6) A thief comes each time he noticed that something good has come into someone's life. 7) A thief is not mindful of your loss. He is mindful of his gain. Etc. These ungodly characteristics of a thief should call for your attention, and also awaken you into realizing the damages the Devil might have done in the lives of many people, and the destruction he may still cause if you slumber in sleep and merry in relaxation without praying down the mighty hand of God to put an end to these evil operations of the Devil. You must be mindful of whatever the Devil has stolen from you and quickly seek for recovery through divine intervention. In the same John 10:10 where Jesus informed us about evil plans of the Devil against us, Jesus also told us what He (Jesus) has come to do for us; “I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly” Satan came to steal, but Jesus came to recover and restore. Do you want to recover your losses? Then read this book meditatively and pray the prayers in it, and it will amaze you how God will miraculously recover your losses. In this book, you will gain the following revelation knowledge: 1) UNDERSTANDING “DIVINE WORKS OF RECOVERY” 2) HOW SATAN STEAL FROM PEOPLE 3) HOW GOD RECOVER AND RESTORE OUR LOSSES 4) OUR ROLES IN THE “DIVINE WORKS OF RECOVERY” 5) HOW TO RETAIN WHAT WE HAVE RECOVERED No one enjoys losing something good. A pregnant woman is never happy when she experiences miscarriage during pregnancy, or loses her child after birth. Businessmen and women feel so sad whenever they fail in any business venture. In sports, no team feels happy whenever they lose a match or tournament to their opponent. This is a general and natural feeling in all ramifications of life. This book will enlighten you and equally help you to avoid those things which make Satan have the edge over you and steal from you. Avoid any form of distraction while reading this book and invite the Holy Spirit to conduct “Divine works of recovery” in your life. Study this book with adequate devotion. Pray Translator: Peter I.
