Wahoo Richard O'Kane, 2009-11-11 The career of the USS Wahoo in sinking Japanese ships in the farthest reaches of the Empire is legendary in submarine circles. Christened three months after Pearl Harbor, Wahoo was commanded by the astonishing Dudley W. "Mush" Morton, whose originality and daring new techniques led to results unprecedented in naval history; among them, successful "down the throat" barrage against an attacking Japanese destroyer, voracious surface-running gun attacks, and the sinking of a four-ship convoy in one day. Wahoo took the war to Japan's front porch, and Morton became known as the Navy's most aggressive and successful sea raider. Now, in a new quality paperback edition, her full story is told by the person most qualified to tell it—her executive officer Richard O'Kane, who went on to become the leading submarine captain of the Second World War. Praise for Wahoo "The accounts of the patrols are spine-tingling, both in triumph and tragedy. It is a tale of great courage, brilliant leadership, and daring innovation in a new type of submarine warfare fought largely on the surface in waters closely controlled by the enemy. Well-written, a gripping story for anybody with a love of the sea or adventure in submarine combat."—Naval War College Review "This is an exceptional story of American men who rose to the occasion time and again under dangerous circumstance." —Abilene Reporter News "A first-hand—and first-rate—narrative, told by the former executive officer of this legendary WWII submarine, which gives readers an intimate feel for life aboard the 'boats' that helped beat the odds in the battles of the Pacific and put Japan on the defensive."—Sea Power "Like Clear the Bridge!, [Richard] O'Kane's bestselling account of the Tang's 33 confirmed sinkings, [Wahoo] is a rousing, authentic war adventure that could well become a classic of its type, crack[ling] with the tensions, boredom, and occasional exhilaration of submarine life under the Pacific, O'Kane is a superb storyteller, and his credentials are impeccable.”—Springfield Sunday Republic

Capitol Reef National Park 2015 Topo Atlas Joe Berardi, 2015-04-30 The Capitol Reef National Park 2015 Topo Atlas is new for 2015 and loaded with topographical maps. Topographical maps are needed by any hiker attempting to hike the remote and rugged slot canyons of the Capitol Reef area which is located near Torrey, Utah in a very remote part of southern Utah. Some of these slot canyon hike hikes start outside of Capitol Reef National Park and continue well into the park for the hardy hiker. Capitol Reef is known for the Waterpocket folds but there are plenty of slot canyon adventures in the area. Even though this part of Utah is remote, most of the slot canyons in this atlas are easily accessible by paved roads, county or state highways. There is a long list of great canyon hikes in the colorful sandstone of Utah including: Burro Wash, Cottonwood Wash, Fivemile Wash, Sheets Gulch and Grand Wash. Sulphur Canyon is not only a red rock adventure but its perennial stream makes it a beautiful water hike to several waterfalls. Get away from the crowds at the more popular slot canyons and enjoy the beauty and solitude of the Capitol Reef area. The custom detailed maps make finding and hiking these great slot canyons much easier and the maps have key GPS coordinates for finding the trailheads or the canyon entrances. This book of maps eliminates the anxiety of trial and error hiking to find some of the best slot canyon adventures in the United States. This atlas eliminates the need to buy multiple 7.5x7.5 quad maps for a single hike and pays for itself by not having to buy multiple high resolution maps. You no longer have to wrestle with multiple large maps on a windy day and the author has produced an atlas that is a pleasure to use out on the trail. Plan your exciting trip to Utah with the Capitol Reef National Park 2015 Topo Atlas.
