Church Wake-Up Call William Benke, Le Etta Benke, Robert E Stevens, David L Loudon, 2014-05-22 Is your church viable in the changing marketplace of today-and tomorrow? Today's church market is comprised of four cultural paradigms- Youth, Baby Busters (Generation X), Baby Boomers, and Pre-Boomers. Each has unique characteristics in terms of attitudes, spiritual orientation, values, emotional needs, moral perspective, and lifestyle. This implies significant changes for the church--new approaches to ministry and different methods of communication and interface. Church Wake-Up Call's unique "Ministries Matrix" approach provides effective management techniques to help you define and evaluate duties, priorities, and remedial actions for the future of your ministry in today's multigenerational context. Church Wake-Up Call will inform and enlighten you on these subjects: understanding and using the Ministries Matrix to define purposes and priorities for your church directing your ministry toward a particular age group without compromising the church's message increasing your church's visibility structuring your church's management organization creating an effective outreach program . . . and more! Although the book is oriented toward churches and their leadership and has been written largely from an evangelical Christian perspective, the descriptive information regarding each of the generational categories that comprise today's populace is applicable to all Christian organizations, whether they be evangelical or mainline Protestant, Catholic or parachurch. Similarly, the management system, which integrates defined purposes, priorities, and programming options into a well-coordinated plan of action, can be applied by all such organizations.

Church Administration and Finance Manual Otto F. Crumroy Jr., Stan Kukawka, Frank M. Witman, 1998-09-01 A field-tested, pragmatic, and resourceful guide to the daunting and logistically complex management of local church. Pastors generally feel equipped to deal with biblical studies, theological questions, preaching responsibilities, and pastoral care. But when it comes to budgets, insurance, fire safety, and church management many find themselves at a loss. Often lay leaders within the congregation flounder with these tasks as well. Here, finally, is the ultimate reference guide for the practical management of the parish. Originally created as a sourcebook for the authors' week-long course on church management and administration at the Claremont School of Theology, the manual in draft version has been field-tested by hundreds of pastors and lay leaders. Not simply a theoretical resource, the Manual provides suggestions for almost every aspect of parish administration: position descriptions, various financial forms, materials for stewardship and Christian education, building use and safety issues, employee record keeping, and much more. Whether pastors are just out of seminary or well-seasoned in parish life, the Manual is full of excellent guidelines, tools, and forms for improving the management of the parish.

Church Administration Robert H. Welch, 2011 From the front desk to the back office, a clear and thorough guide that helps pastors and church staff become effective and efficient leaders, managers, and administrators. Second edition.

The Complete Guide to Church Management M. L. Donnellan, M. DIV Rev Alan P. Naumann, 2011-07-01 Proponents of the we've-always-done-it-this-way theory of church management will not need this book. But, pastors and lay leaders open to changes in the management of their churches will find in this handbook proven strategies to help them achieve their missions. When I graduated from seminary, I had a pretty good handle on how to speak and lead, but not a clue as to how to manage our church. This book should fill that need quite well. I recommend it. Dr. Ben Bond, First Baptist Church, Clermont, FL This is a complete and helpful guide for church administration for pastors and lay persons. I wish it were available when I began my ministry in 1964. Pastor J. Kenneth Laber, International Interim Pastor, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America Marilyn L.
