How to Open and Operate a Financially Successful Consulting Business Kristie

Lorette, 2011 Companies, organizations, or individuals hire consultants to provide advice to themselves or to clients for a fee to help solve a particular problem or provide certification within the area of their expertise. A recent survey by the Association of Management Consulting Firms found entry-level consultants earn an average of $65,000 annually while senior partners earn an average of more than $300,000 (including bonuses and profit sharing). Self-employed business consultants may earn $35 to $400 per hour depending on their market. A majority of consultants have gained their expertise from previous employment. There are as many consultants as there are areas of expertise; one thing they all have in common is that they are well paid. The business of consulting is growing rapidly. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, consulting in particular business and IT consulting are becoming one of the fastest growing business segments in the U.S. economy. There has never been a better time to start your consulting business and get ahead of the competition. This new book is a comprehensive and detailed study of the business side of providing consulting services. If you enjoy meeting people, having a home-based business, traveling, problem solving, and using your expertise, this may be the perfect business for you. The Dropout Multi-Millionaire Brian Will, 2021-04-28 Author Brian Will, became a multi-millionaire at the age of forty, with no formal education, no money, and no clue what he was doing when he started. In The Dropout Multi-Millionaire, Brian shares his personal stories of success and failure spanning the last thirty-five years as he teaches you the 37 Business Lessons he learned along the way. Every month 500,000 new businesses start in America. 150,000 of those will not survive the first twelve months. After five years, only 175,000 will still be in business-that's a 65% failure rate. Businesses fail for a lot of reasons. The biggest one, however, is the owner's lack of understanding of their personal decision-making skills, who they are, or who they should be inside their organization. Running a business is both an art and a science. If you are only good at one of them, or in the worst case, neither, you will most likely become one of the 65% of people who fail. This book is about 37 Business Lessons you need to learn to put yourself on the path to business success. Ultimately, your success or failure is dependent on your ability to accept your weaknesses, put aside your ego, and learn to become who you need to be to succeed. This book was written for people who want to: Start a business. Operate a business with less time while earning more profit. Learn how to grow and scale an existing business. Maybe even one day sell their business and walk away with a windfall exit.
