Helping Hilda Terry Rudd, RN, MSN, Terry Rudd, Linda Cooper, Trish Billings, 2005-06 Hilda Shaylor was a vibrant, strong, independent woman, who experienced life to the fullest; a world traveler in search of knowledge and adventure. Her life was one of service, as a registered nurse caring for the ill and a generous soul who was active in her local community. Every day, Hilda stepped outside her door and surfed the waters of Laguna Beach, California - a daunting task for any eighty-year-old. In this inspiring book, Hilda's three daughters have chronicled their experiences with Hilda's illness, her untimely death and the roles that various people played in her care. They also provide answers to critical questions that surround hospitalization. What is an advocate and what should he or she do? Who will make the critical medical decisions? What is hospice? How and when does a patient get discharged from a hospital? These questions and many more are addressed in Helping Hilda. The book also features important information on Advance Directives for Healthcare, definitions of medical conditions, identification of hospital personnel and their roles, medical tests, terms and conditions and a list of handy Web site referrals. At the end of this handbook, each daughter shares her unique perspective and contribution to the final days of their mother's life. You will find this book uplifting and educational, both an invaluable resource and a tribute to the cherished for years to come. Book jacket.
