Carol Ann Duffy Jane Dowson,2016-05-17 This is the only monograph to consider the entire thirty-year career, publications, and influence of Britain's first female poet laureate. It outlines her impact on trends in contemporary poetry and establishes what we mean by 'Duffy-esque' concerns and techniques. Discussions of her writing and activities prove how she has championed the relevance of poetry to all areas of contemporary culture and to the life of every human being. Individual chapters discuss the lyrics of 'love, loss, and longing'; the socially motivated poems about the 1980s; the female-centred volumes and poems; the relationship between poetry and public life; and poetry and childhood and written for children. The book should whet the appetite of readers who know little of Duffy's work to find out more, while providing students and scholars with an in-depth analysis of the poems in their contexts. It draws on a wide range of critical works and includes an extensive list of further reading.

Racism, Capitalism, and the COVID-19 Pandemic Zophia Edwards,2021-10-25 The COVID-19 pandemic has brought into sharp relief the deep structural problems affecting nonwhite racialized workers in the core and periphery. Yet, many social scientific analyses of the global political economy, at least in the pre-COVID era, are race neutral or willfully indifferent to the persistent racial pattern of global inequalities. This pamphlet explains how the unrelenting super-exploitation of Black and other nonwhite racialized labor in the core and the periphery persisted throughout the COVID-19 crisis through the lens of Black radical scholarship on racism and capitalism. Edwards not only captures how people of African descent have been disproportionately impacted by COVID, but also the historical, sociological and structural roots of the inequalities that affect vulnerable groups across the world, tied to what she has described as the architecture of the global economy linked to race and gender. She represents a refreshing voice in our time and part of a Caribbean radical tradition in the spirit of Claudia Jones, Eric Williams, Oliver C. Cox, and C.L.R. James, from her native Trinidad, as well as Guyana's Walter Rodney and Andaiye.

Coal Black Horse Robert Olmstead,2008-01-01 When Robey Childs's mother experiences a premonition about her husband, a Civil War soldier, she sends her only son to retrieve his father from the battlefield, accompanied by a horse that becomes his only companion as he makes his way through the destruction of war.

The Solotype Catalog of 4,147 Display Typefaces Dan X. Solo, 2014-05-05 The author of many books on typography, Dan X. Solo was also the proprietor of his own typography shop in Oakland, California – an establishment dedicated to unusual typography and special effects. This comprehensive catalog offers graphic designers a dazzling selection of over 4,000 typefaces and optical effects available from Solotype Typographers. Here, in Solo's words, is a great cast of characters – the alphabet – abetted by a cornucopia of typographical ideas and an endless resource of letters, words, phrases, slogans, logos, humorous comments, headlines, and graphic symbols. Individual sections of the book display a rich variety of typefaces in categories such as Condensed, Victorian, Art Nouveau, Art Deco, Rustic, Thick-and-tin, Calligraphic, Uncials, Latins, and Blackletter. Samples are imaginatively presented. Stagecoach, for example, is printed in Fargo typeface, evoking dusty trails, rawhide, and ten-gallon hats, while Sizzling summer savings appears appropriately in the flamboyant Firebug typeface. All typefaces are indexed for quick and easy reference. As entertaining as it is practical and useful, this impressive treasury of versatile typefaces and optical effects will be indispensable to busy commercial artists as an inexhaustible source of typographic ideas and a swipe file of words, phrases, and letters for use in graphic art projects.

Alphabets & Other Signs Julian Rothenstein, Mel Gooding, 1993 A source of idiosyncratic clip art for graphic artists and designers and a celebration of the printed word in all its diversity. Over 130 unusual and rare alphabets, monograms, numerals, ampersands, ornaments, arrows, and more accompany a fascinating essay on the philosophy of alphabet design.

Dutch Type Jan Middendorp, 2004 Overzicht van vooral de 20e-eeuwse Nederlandse typografie.

Plain and decorative alphabets include Calliope, Buffalo Bill, Shaded Barnum, Fargo, Jackpot, and Burlesque. Styles range from bold Bohemia and Broadside to delicate Aeolian Open and Arboret. Many include lowercase letters and numbers, plus Victorian printer's ornaments.

A Half-century of Type Design and Typography, 1895-1945 Frederic William Goudy, George Leslie McKay, 1946 Memoirs of a typographer, with bibliography.

An Abridged Specimen of Printing Types Made at Bruce's New-York Type-foundry George Bruce's Son & Co, 1869

Design with Type Carl Dair, 1982-01-01 Design with Type takes the reader through a study of typography that starts with the individual letter and proceeds through the word, the line, and the mass of text. The contrasts possible with type are treated in detail, along with their applications to the typography of books, advertising, magazines, and information data. The various contending schools of typography are discussed, copiously illustrated with the author's selection of over 150 examples of imaginative typography from many parts of the world. Design with Type differs from all other books on typography in that it discusses type as a design material as well as a means of communication: the premise is that if type is understood in terms of design, the user of type will be better able to work with it to achieve maximum legibility and effectiveness, as well as aesthetic pleasure.

Everyone who uses type, everyone who enjoys the appearance of the printed word, will find Design with Type informative and fascinating. It provides, too, an outstanding example of the effectiveness of imaginative and tasteful typographic design.
