John COLBRAN

Unapologetic Expression André Marmot, 2024-04-30

A lively, subversive history of the new UK jazz wave, encapsulating its revolutionary spirit and tracing its foundations to birth of the genre itself. By the end of the last century, jazz music was considered by many to be obsolete and uncool, a genre appreciated only by out of touch white men with deeply questionable taste. And yet, by 2019, a new generation of UK jazz musicians was selling out major venues and appearing on festival line-ups around the world. How has UK jazz rehabilitated its image so totally in twenty-five years? And how did it ever become uncool in the first place? Reaching back to the roots of jazz as the 'unapologetic expression' of oppressed peoples, shaped by the forces of slavery, imperialism and globalisation, Andre 'Marmot places this new wave within the wider context of a divided, postcolonial Britain navigating its identity in a new world order. These artists have crafted a sound which reflects the nation as it is today - a sound connected to the very origins of jazz itself. Drawing on eighty-six interviews with key architects of this jazz renaissance and those who came before them - from Shabaka Hutchings, Nubya Garcia and Moses Boyd to Gilles Peterson, Courtney Pine and Cleveland Watkiss - Unapologetic Expression captures the radical spirit of a vital British musical movement.

Of Darkness and Light Lisa Herman-Gagon, 2000-04

In this conception of poetry, I have entwined fantasy and reality, inviting you, the reader, to decide for yourselves, which is which. From the vampire immortal, to the vampire in man, from heavenly visions, to heaven on earth. Of life, loss, and love eternal, affairs of the heart and head. With written words we share, with poetry we connect. Creating dreams, speaking truths, baring our souls. To all who hunger...let us feast. Lisa Herman-Gagnon

The Trump Card Mark Burns, 2022 The mainstream media, critical race theorists, and the Black Lives Matter movement are working to divide Americas. The dangers of critical race theory, Why Trump's policies are good for all Americans, including Black Americans, How and why he stopped playing the race card, Why the church must speak out against a racially divisive narrative, The way to heal a racially divided nation and save America is not by flowing with the racist policies of Joe Biden and the Democrats but through the conservative strategies that Trump has proved work-policies that promote Martin Luther King Jr.'s vision for an America where people are not judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character.
