Turning your great idea into reality always feels like the most difficult step in getting your start-up off the ground - until you realize that nobody beyond your family and close friends knows about your amazing product or service. This difficult lesson evades many aspiring entrepreneurs: The success of your startup is limited by the number of potential customers who know about it. Ideally, you'll market your startup well before you're open for business. And you need to spread the word quickly to gain customers. Remember that: Short-term wins absolutely exist, but instead of spending time and money searching for them, early-stage companies should formulate repeatable, scalable marketing techniques. In other words, your core marketing strategy shouldn't be swinging for the fences and trying desperately to create a viral video. Rather, you should be focusing on the following basics to increase exposure in a sustainable way: define your brand, reach your audience and craft a SEO strategy. You'll find a great insight about Time Management: Time Management is about living your best life. It's about having time to focus on your essential tasks, skills and passions. It's about streamlining your practices and business tasks into systems that you can manage yourself quite quickly and efficiently. Be ready to analyse your market segment, reach your customers, market and sell your product. Make your start-up a successful project!

Article writing super secrets Billy Raymond, 2021 1.1 The Expert Use of Article Marketing in E-Commerce Today In the history of Internet Marketing, which is indeed still a short history, Article Marketing has always been one of the most effective ways to market a business or website at little or no cost. This still holds true today, and will most likely be true for many years to come. Article Marketing is viral in nature. One article is written, and it travels from your computer to multiple article banks, providing back links to your website. From there other website owners copy the article, with the author's information intact, and publish it in their newsletters or on their websites. They may even use your article as part of a compilation for an informative ebook. The important thing is that the article becomes viral - spreading far and wide. This accomplishes many things. As already mentioned, this provides you with back links to your site that help with search engine optimization. Since your author's information, or resource box as it is called, is at the bottom of the article, this gives your website a great deal of exposure, and increased traffic. Article Marketing accomplishes a couple more things that are vital in ecommerce today. First, writing and distributing articles helps to establish you as an expert on the topic in question. Second, it helps to build a 'relationship' with people who read your articles, which in turn builds trust. Successful Internet business owners typically write and distribute at least one article per week to the various article banks. They may use articles that they wrote for their newsletters as well for distribution, after the newsletter has gone out to subscribers. If the business owner does not write well, or doesn't have the time to write their own articles, they typically hire a ghostwriter to create the articles for them. The articles that are distributed by successful people are informative and well written. They are not sales letters disguised as articles. They are informative vehicles that are used to get readers to visit their websites, providing helpful information, with the author's information at the bottom, including a link to the website.

Article Marketing Simplified Anthony Ekanem, 2016-06-03 Article Marketing is essentially writing and distributing short articles to a variety of outlets, including article repositories, which are also called article directories and article banks, forums, and newsletter publishers. Article marketing is one of the most effective types of marketing that one can do - it is also one of the least expensive ways to market a business. In fact, it can even be free, costing you nothing more than your time. There are many benefits to article marketing. Because articles become viral, your message literally travels far and wide, increasing traffic to your website and increasing newsletter signups. Article marketing is also used to make sales and to build credibility. Anyone who wants to establish themselves as an expert in their niche should take advantage of all that article marketing has to offer.

How to Increase Your Article Marketing Profits David a Osei, 2019-11-27 Traffic is the pre-requisite for any successful business. Just like how a typical brick and mortar shop needs people walking around to see their shop, an online business needs eyeballs as well. The problem is that for many new entrepreneurs, they lack the financial budget or knowhow to generate tons of traffic for their businesses. And then in the early internet marketing years, a group of people came up with the term Article marketing and this has been the forefront for free traffic generation till today. Let's dwell deeper into this amazing phenomenon. Article Marketing is a method of generating traffic for your online business without any cost. Created early in the web 2.0 era, this method has been used ever since from marketers around the world to create online traffic streams till today. One of the good things about article marketing is that it has the ability of creating passive traffic. Which means, you'll be getting traffic without having to actively be there. (We will see how in the next few chapters). This seems like the ultimate choice especially for marketers who are on a shoestring budget. The essence of article marketing is that traffic generation relies on the articles content and SEO to draw traffic through search engines and from sites, which already have a huge following. Article submission directories are places where people can submit articles to get more eyeballs for their websites. It is the bread and butter of using articles to draw traffic. In the next section, we will look at the basics for drawing traffic through articles instantly.
