Sally Saver and The Egyptian Credit Capers Demeitric Collins,2019-05-07 In this episode, When Frugal Freddie and Rick Slickster try to steal a valuable, Egyptian golden necklace using the magical time-traveling powers of the Portal Tree, mayhem arises as they become lost to the wilds of the past. Confronted and captured by a strict Egyptian Pharaoh and his royal guards, the friends work, not only to free themselves, but also bring better work conditions to the impoverished people of Egypt. Immediately, Sally Saver is notified and rushes to her friends' rescue. When Sally Saver meets Pharaoh and introduces the concept of credit to he and his advisors, it is up to him to decide if he would like to use this information for the good of his people or keep them as unpaid labors building his kingdom of riches. Sally Saver and The Egyptian Credit Capers is an interactive adventure that allows young readers to decide where the story goes as they learn the basics of finance: credit, saving, budgeting, and the consequences of financial decisions and the downfall of greed. With numerous paths to choose and six different endings, this educational tale will keep youngsters coming back long after it ends.

Transform Tomorrow Stig Nybo, 2013-01-17 A campaign to prepare Americans for their futures Transform Tomorrow investigates why so many Americans are at risk of out-living their savings. Author Stig Nybo draws inspiration from successful behavior change campaigns to identify the drivers of change—context and beliefs—and how they can be successfully employed to boost retirement savings rates. While the retirement savings industry increasingly embraces the contextual drivers of behavior, very little is being done to shape our beliefs to start saving smarter and sooner. Nybo suggests a retirement readiness campaign to inspire and enlist the support of individuals, employers, industry, government, and the media. Explains how society can transition from treating 401(k) as a voluntary benefit to the basis upon which each individual who wants to or needs to can retire comfortably. Details a national, coordinated retirement readiness campaign, along the lines of successful Public Service Advertisements—like The Crying Indian and Rosie the Riveter—that will help change behavior and re-shape the culture of our nation Makes a call to action for such a campaign Retirement in America is endangered, but Transform Tomorrow shows a path back from the brink.
