Applied phytotherapy I. Ferencz Viktoria, This first volume of Applied Phytotherapy is about the most important herbs taught and used for phytotherapy purposes in Hungary. A comprehensive work that contains all the important information in one book that is essential in the practice of naturopathy. In addition to the history of phytotherapy, it discusses the basic botanical and phytotherapeutic concepts necessary for recognition and characterization. It summarizes the meaning of the most important medical and physiological Latin terms, associating them with each plant. He deals with phytochemistry, the solution preparation technologies used in phytotherapy, and the practice of recipe formation. The book contains a uniform, detailed description of 82 medicinal herbs and 7 apitherapy products for human use, supplemented with veterinary and other special specialist applications. The description of the effects of the individual medicinal plants contains, in addition to the knowledge of folk medicine, university teaching material as well as numerous international research results.
