Tim the Tiny Block Dominic J Bianco,2020-08-28

Little Tim just wants to help! But when a box of toy blocks set off on a mission to construct a house, he can't quite find his place. He's a different size! He's a different shape! How can Tim help his friends when he's not like everyone else? Vibrant illustrations and playful rhyme come together in D.J. Bianco's original story to show us that it's okay to be different. Sometimes our quirks and originality can help us end up in places higher than we could have ever imagined.

The Little Little Tiny Tiny Small Small House

Barbara Winningham,2017-11-20 This picture book tells a story of a young lady who realizes the infrastructure of her time has changed from the beginning of civilization. The characters reveal the necessities of daily living. Old Hot George keeps the house warm. Busy Betsy cooks the food with Grandma Lillie's help and Sudsy Suzy keeps her clean and refreshed. The story reveals to children that Bootie's grandparents reside in the little-little, tiny-tiny, small-small house and share their simple lives with her. In her book, author Barbara Winningham, captures a time when people were thankful for what they had; when people expressed enjoyment with hardships and had great respect for each other. As you read and look at the colorful illustrations, it becomes very evident that life was simple, uncluttered and happy. Bootie so enjoys the needs of everyday life in the unique characters of the book. Filled with vivid, colorful, easy-to-follow illustrations, The Little Little Tiny Tiny Small Small House presents to all readers a clear view of how modern conveniences, as we know them, could change at any given time. Viewed as a series, this story continues in the same vein of the author's first five published books- The Turtle Pit, My Kitty Dog, Chatter's Nut House, The Mud Racing Contest At A Town Called Toad Suck and Shadow Chaser. We see many different pathways of information, guidance and inspiration revealed to the young reader's mind.

The Tiny People Under The Couch Louisa Reda,2020-12 Have you ever had a special story passed down in your family? My father would tell this little tale to my sister and I growing up, and it remains a fond memory. Illustrated by my daughter and her Art Teacher Ms. Evelisa Genova, it's lessons are simple and timeless; we believe this story encourages children to believe in their imaginations, to ask questions, to explore, and to grow. A reminder to listen, understand the impact their actions have on others, and the importance of being kind. I strive to pass the messages down to my own children. We hope that it can become a family favorite in your home. And maybe if you're lucky the tiny people will come out and have a party with you!
