On Time - New Contributions to the Husserlian Phenomenology of Time Dieter Lohmar, Ichiro Yamaguchi, 2010-06-21 Usually Husserl's analysis of time-constitution is thought of in terms of three phases that are roughly bound up with the central publications, the Lectures, the Bernau Manuscripts and the C-Manuscripts. Today, after the publication of the central texts incorporating the last two phases, the discussion of Husserl's analysis of time-constitution has entered a new phase. This is true for the interpretation of the latter two texts but it also affects our reading of the Lectures. Today, in the aftermath of the recent publication of the C-Manuscripts, it seems more likely that the seemingly separated first two phases are more close to each other than expected. The new and broader context allows for more thorough interpretation of the whole enterprise of time-constitution. By publishing this collection of contributions of the best international experts in this field, entailing some refreshing approaches of new coming researchers, this collection gives an overview of the most contemporary interpretations of this fundamental phenomenological theme.

Franz Rosenzweig Sprachdenken Franz Rosenzweig, U. Rosenzweig, Rachel Bat-Adams, 1984-12-31 (nach Berichten von Martin Buber) Aus den Anfängen unserer Schriftübertragung, so überschrieb Martin Buber seinen ersten Bericht, den Bericht über die Prinzipien, die ihn und Rosenzweig leiteten, über die Arbeitsweise bei der Schriftübertragung und über die wachsende gegenseitige Befruchtung im Verstehen und im Verständlichmachen der Schrift. Dieser Bericht, der in der Rosenzweig-Gedenknummer der Zeitschrift Der Orden Bne Briss (Berlin, März 1930) dreieinhalb Monate nach Rosenzweigs Tod erschienen ist und in dem Aufsatzband Martin Buber und Franz Rosenzweig, Die Schrift und ihre Verdeutschung (Verlag Schocken, Berlin 1936) fast unverändert abgedruckt wurde, ist noch ganz und gar von dem unmittelbaren Erleben - dem menschlichen der 1 Zusammenarbeit wie dem sachlichen der Schriftherhellung-geprägt : . . . Als 1923 Franz Rosenzweig, mit der Übertragung von Gedichten Jehuda Halevis beschäftigt, sich häufig an mich um Rat wandte, und wir bald dazu gelangten, an der Hand der jeweiligen Beispiele miteinander die Problematik des Übersetzens überhaupt und die Probleme der Übersetzerischen Aufgabe zu erörtern, ergaben sich uns unmerklich, zuerst nur als der zuweilen erleuchtete, meist dämmerige Hintergrund unseres Gesprächs, dann aber immer gebieterischer als seine magnetische Mitte, die Fragen: Ist die Schrift übersetzbar? Ist sie schon wirklich übersetzt? Was bleibt noch zu tun? wenig? viel? das Entscheidende? . . .

The Pace of Modernity O. Bradley Bassler, 2012 Wittgenstein said that philosophers should greet each other, not by saying "hello," but rather "take your time." But what is time? Time is money, but this points to an even better answer to this basic question for our modern epoch: time is acceleration. In a cultural system which stresses economic efficiency, the quicker route is always the more prized, if not always the better one. Wittgenstein's dictum thus constitutes an act of rebellion against the dominant vector of our culture, but as such it threatens to become (quickly) anti-modern. We need an approach to "reading" our information-rich culture which is ...

TEMPORARY: Citizenship, Architecture and City Andrea Borsari, Annalisa Trentin, Pierpaolo Ascari, 2023-09-16 This book offers a comprehensive overview of forces shaping urban renewal and the sustainable and inclusive transformation of contemporary cities. It discusses temporariness and uncertainty of citizenship, participation, and inclusion, as well as the energy and digital transformation, merging different perspectives, such as the social, philosophical, economic, and architectural ones. Based on revised and extended contributions to the International Congress "TEMPORARY: Citizenship, Architecture and City, held virtually on November 20-21, 2022, from the University of Bologna, this book offers extensive information and a thought-provoking reading to researchers in architecture, anthropology, social and environmental policy, as well as to professionals and policy makers involved in planning the city of the future.

The Origin of Time Heath Massey, 2015-02-23 A critical examination of the relationship between the philosophies of Martin Heidegger and Henri Bergson, focusing on the central issue of time. The recent renewal of interest in the philosophy of Henri Bergson has increased both recognition of his influence on twentieth-century philosophy and attention to his relationship to phenomenology. Until now, the question of Martin Heidegger's debt to Bergson has remained largely unanswered. Heidegger's brief discussion of Bergson in Being and Time is geared toward explaining why he fails in his attempts to think more radically about time. Despite this dismissal, a close look at Heidegger's early works dealing with temporality reveals a sustained engagement with Bergson's thought. In The Origin of Time, Heath Massey evaluates Heidegger's critique of Bergson and examines how Bergson's efforts to rethink time in terms of duration anticipate Heidegger's own interpretation of temporality. Massey demonstrates how Heidegger follows Bergson in seeking to uncover "primordial time" by disentangling temporality from spatiality, how he associates Bergson with the tradition of philosophy that covers up this phenomenon, and how he overlooks Bergson's ontological turn in Matter and Memory. Through close readings of early major works by both thinkers, Massey argues that Bergson is a much more radical thinker with respect to time than Heidegger allows. Heath Massey is Associate Professor of Philosophy at Beloit College.

Virginia Woolf and the Aesthetics of Vision Claudia Olk, 2014-08-19 The category of vision is significant for Modernist texts as well as for the unfolding discourse of Modernism itself. Within the general Modernist fascination with the artistic and experimental possibilities of vision and perception this study looks at Virginia Woolf's novels and her critical writings and examines the relation between visuality and aesthetics. An aesthetics of vision, as this study argues, becomes a productive principle of narrative. The visual is not only pertinent to Woolf's processes of composition, but her works create a kind of vision that is proper to the text itself - a vision that reflects on the experience of seeing and renegotiates the relation between the reader and the text. The study investigates key dimensions of aesthetic vision. It addresses vision in the context of theories of aesthetic experience and identifies a semantics of seeing. It analyses functions of symbolic materiality in the presentation of boundaries of perception, modes of temporality and poetic potentialities. In exploring the connections between vision and language, it seeks to provide new perspectives for a reassessment of what occurs in Modernism's relation to vision.
