The Guide for the Perplexed Moses Maimonides, Aeterna Press, 1947 IN compliance with a desire repeatedly expressed by the Committee of the Hebrew Literature Society, I have undertaken to translate Maimonides Dalalat al-Hairin, better known by the Hebrew title Moreh Nebuchim, and I offer the first instalment of my labours in the present volume. This contains—(1) A short Life of Maimonides, in which special attention is given to his alleged apostasy. (2) An analysis of the whole of the Moreh Nebuchim. (3) A translation of the First Part of this work from the Arabic, with explanatory and critical notes. Aeterna Press

From Father to Son, 1991-01-01 The family narratives in the book of Genesis are important in understanding the meaning of the book and are fundamental to the unfolding story of the birth of the Israelite nation. Devora Steinmetz sees kinship in ancient narratives as a symbolic structure representing the ability of the emerging culture to survive despite conflict that threatened society's existence. The family narratives in Genesis reflect a culture's capacity to survive as a united people. The Literary Currents in Biblical Interpretation series explores current trends within the discipline of biblical interpretation by dealing with the literary qualities of the Bible: the play of its language, the coherence of its final form, and the relationships between text and readers. Biblical interpreters are being challenged to take responsibility for the theological, social, and ethical implications of their readings. This series encourages original readings that breach the confines of traditional biblical criticism.

Mind and Vision R. S. Agarwal,1978 Preservation of good eyesight is almost impossible without proper eye education and mental relaxation. The quieter the mind, the better the eyesight is preserved. It is a fact that glasses help many to relieve their discomforts of their head and eyes and enable people to see well near or far, and their use in many cases is imperative. But it is also true that glasses do not check further deterioration and the power of glasses keeps on increasing. By using these simple methods of treatment, thousands of cases of poor eyesight have benefited greatly.

Interlinear English / Hebrew of the Book of Acts Through Revelation with Key to Pronounce The Hebrew Rev. Emilio Saenz,2016-01-01 The Rev. Emilio Saenz Olivares was born in Northern Mexico and is a native of this region, being living here since 1943, where I have had my education for the secular and also for the spiritual. I attended the R.G.B. Institute in Edinburg, Texas, after I Pastored three churches, and I am still able to teach Sunday School in my old age, for the glory of the Lord. Back in 1994, I visited the group of Messianic believers and became a member, until the Rabbi Absalom Ben David quit and moved out of this area, he taught us the Hebrew lessons well, also Ms. Sara Pasol from Brownsville,Texas, a Hebrew teacher, she emphasized the learning of the Hebrew verbs and how to conjugate them in all its tenses. That was when the Lord gave me the idea to write these books, first in Spanish/Hebrew, then this in English/Hebrew in an Interlinear format. Also from Ms. Jaffa McPherson, from Easy Hebrew from Greenville, TN. May the Lord bless all these teachers. It is my sincere hope that this book will bring you the desire to learn and speak the Hebrew, the words spoken by our Lord Jesus Christ. Most of these words are the same as today's Hebrew. For the glory of the Lord and His Son Jesus Christ. Amen.

Legends in Gandhian Social Activism: Mira Behn and Sarala Behn Bidisha Mallik,2022-06-15 This book is about Madeleine Slade (1892-1982) and Catherine Mary Heilemann (1901-1982), two English associates of Mohandas K. (Mahatma) Gandhi (1869-1948), known in India as Mira Behn and Sarala Behn. The odysseys of these women present a counternarrative to the forces of imperialism, colonialism, capitalism, and globalized development. The book examines their extraordinary journey to India to work with Gandhi and their roles in India's independence movement, their spiritual strivings, their independent work in the Himalayas, and most importantly, their contribution to the evolution of Gandhian philosophy of socio-economic reconstruction and environmental conservation in the present Indian state of Uttarakhand. The author shows that these women developed ideas and practices that drew from an extensive intellectual terrain that cannot be limited to Gandhi's work. She delineates directions in which Gandhian thought and experiments in rural development work and visions of a new society evolved through the lives, activism, and written contributions of these two women. Their thought and practice generated a new cultural consciousness on sustainability that had a key influence in environmental debates in India and beyond and were responsible for two of the most important environmental movements of India and the world: the Chipko Movement or the movement against commercial green felling of trees by hugging them, and the protest against the Tehri high dam on the Bhagirathi River. To this day, their teachings and philosophies constitute a useful and significant contribution to the search for and implementation of global ideas of ecological conservation and human development.
