Silver Linings Ava Lepor, 2018-08-14 My knees were shaking, quaking wildly beneath my long down coat. My heart was pounding, my mind reeling. Wolves were predacious. Knowing that my four-year-old would be in grave danger were he to run, a tasty, easy catch in the eyes of the wolf-dogs, I conjured up as calm a voice as I could and instructed him to stay with me. Amazingly, he seemed unaware of the danger we were facing, yet heeded me without question. Then, I offered a swift, silent prayer to the Almighty. Please, I implored, give me the strength to see us through, to protect my precious ones. In this enchanting collection of short stories, the author takes you through the delightful, inspiring, and thought-provoking stories of her life experience, from her childhood, to world travels, to motherhood. Join her as she gets into trouble daydreaming in school, prepares the perfect plan to get her driver's license, encounters a group of children insisting she adopt a stray cat, experiences culture shock trying to buy a pickle in Holland, faces down a pack of wolves in the Judean hills, and many more adventures. From reading these stories with your family to snuggling up with this book at bedtime, Silver Linings will make you laugh, make you wonder, and transport you to other places and times. It will, most of all, make you appreciate the beauty and excitement in living every day.

Perfect SoloPreneur They Call Me Hoz, 2018-12-31 I wrote Perfect SoloPreneur to answer the question: how would I become a SoloPreneur if I had to start from scratch all over again? Today, everybody has the opportunity to create a personal brand and become a SoloPreneur or an entrepreneur using mostly free tools on the World Wide Web. But the path is littered with traps, sharks and missing information. If you're hustling to build your own side business - your own digital empire - then you already know about the endless temptations for cool tools and software and the endless monthly subscriptions that are required to run these tools. You know also about the countless motivational videos and tips out there telling us to just go for it, make it happen, etc. In this book, I talk about the things not to fall for and the mindset the SoloPreneur needs to cultivate. I talk about the things to be mindful of when you're building your personal brand and the ways others may try to attack it in future. I talk about the problem with all these motivational videos (they're great to watch and I recommend that you use them to get inspired, but we need to remember context because context is everything. The fact is that today, there is an incredible opportunity for anyone to become a SoloPreneur and build a successful business online in their spare time from their spare room, and every day more people join the laptop lifestyle (aka the Internet lifestyle) and become financially independent. But the idea of achieving online success is being romanticised into a work your b*tt off and it will happen formula (well, those make great videos...) I tried and failed more times than I care to remember and ended up in ugly situations from following a lot of similar advice blindly. I finally got things to work after a lot of effort and backtracking and applying certain rules based on common sense. At the end of that 'little journey' it struck me that it should not have been

this hard, and I should not have had to go through so much stress both financially and emotionally. I realised that the reason I made things a lot harder than they need to be is because I followed other people's models without applying any criteria of my own. This book is about the things I've learnt on this journey, and about how I would do this next time, to make it as easy and efficient as possible. Enjoy.

Hoz About Hoz: Hoz has worked with clients in 21 countries. He has created 3 physical product brands of his own which he runs to this day as well as a digital marketing agency and a publishing business. Before that he was a touring musician. Recently, Hoz decided to start blogging and vlogging to share his journey with other SoloPreneurs. He's just getting started in the blogosphere but he brings all his experience and humour with him. He decided to put his hindsight to use and write Perfect SoloPreneur as the blueprint he would have followed if he had to do this whole thing again from scratch. Perfect SoloPreneur is a bird's eye view of what it takes to create digital empires. The premise of the book is a call to action to today's unprecedented opportunity to create a personal brand and generate revenue online working from home or anywhere else and designing the life you want.

Q&As What's the difference between a solopreneur and an entrepreneur? Entrepreneurs have teams on whom they rely on to carry out their ideas. SoloPreneurs come up with ideas and then roll up their sleeves and do the work. Because of this limitation, SoloPreneurs have less scale than entrepreneurs - especially those on a budget. This book talks about the most important things SoloPreneurs can leverage to increase their output.

Confessions of a Crummy Mummy - The Baby Years Natalie Brown, 2021-11-16 Unashamedly oversharing the truth about the first year

Confessions of a Crummy Mummy - The Baby Years by parenting blogger and accidental mum of four Natalie Brown (@confessionsofacrummymummy) is the literary equivalent of the tea and toast you're handed after giving birth: warm, reassuring and you can't help but want more! An antidote to the traditional parenting manual, the telling-it-how-it-is parenting memoir lifts the lid on a subject the hugely successful genre of telling-it-how-it-is parenting memoirs has yet to touch on: giving birth during a global pandemic. And let's just say giving birth during a global pandemic was not in the birth plan! An easy-to-digest and quick-paced list-style format offers a collection of witty and brutally honest confessions time-poor mums can dip in and out of and back into again. Starting with the birth and what really happens to your lady bits after pushing a human being out of your foo-foo, chapters are split into confessions on subjects including breastfeeding, weaning, homeschooling and washing - and what happens when you find yourself doing it all in the middle of a global pandemic. The light-hearted and entertaining confessions are peppered with heartfelt thoughts, frustrations, and home truths about the first year that every mum will relate to, making the book a perfect gift and must-read for all new (and not so new) mamas feeling like they're doing too many things and none of them well.
