Handbook of Research on Web 2.0, 3.0, and X.0: Technologies, Business, and Social Applications Murugesan, San, 2009-11-30 This book provides a comprehensive reference source on next generation Web technologies and their applications--Provided by publisher.

Search Engine Optimization Andreas Veglis, Dimitrios Giomelakis, 2021-02-24 This Special Issue book focuses on the theory and practice of search engine optimization (SEO). It is intended for anyone who publishes content online and it includes five peer-reviewed papers from various researchers. More specifically, the book includes theoretical and case study contributions which review and synthesize important aspects, including, but not limited to, the following themes: theory of SEO, different types of SEO, SEO criteria evaluation, search engine algorithms, social media and SEO, and SEO applications in various industries, as well as SEO on media websites. The book aims to give a better understanding of the importance of SEO in the current state of the Internet and online information search. Even though SEO is widely used by marketing practitioners, there is a relatively small amount of academic research that systematically attempts to capture this phenomenon and its impact across different industries. Thus, this collection of studies offers useful insights, as well as a valuable resource that intends to open the door for future SEO-related research.

Tourism Informatics: Visual Travel Recommender Systems, Social Communities, and User Interface Design Sharda, Nalin, 2009-09-30 This book presents innovative research being conducted into Travel Recommender Systems, travel related on-line communities, and their user interface design--Provided by publisher.

Custom Search - Discover more: Irina Shamaeva, David Michael Galley, 2021-06-29 It is the first-ever book on Google Programmable Search Engines covering little-known techniques, advanced features, and operators. A detailed intro on creating PSEs, including info absent in Google's help. A "hack" on creating PSEs that look for profiles in seconds. Introduction to advanced PSE-only search operators allowing to perform filtered searches of parts of the web. A "hack" on expanding Google's search limits to 500 terms. Use cases, examples, and approaches that would be educational for those doing online research.

Entity-Oriented Search Krisztian Balog, 2018-10-02 This open access book covers all facets of entity-oriented search—where "search" can be interpreted in the broadest sense of information access—from a unified point of view, and provides a coherent and comprehensive overview of the state of the art. It represents the first synthesis of research in this broad and rapidly developing area. Selected topics are discussed in-depth, the goal being to establish fundamental techniques and methods as a basis for future research and development. Additional topics are treated at a survey level only, containing numerous pointers to the relevant literature. A roadmap for future research, based on open issues and challenges identified along the way, rounds out the book. The book is divided into three main parts, sandwiched between introductory and concluding chapters. The first two chapters introduce readers to the basic concepts, provide an overview of entity-oriented search tasks, and present the various types and sources of data that will be used throughout the book. Part I deals with the core task of entity ranking: given a textual query, possibly enriched with additional elements or structural hints, return a ranked list of entities. This core task is examined in a number of different variants, using both structured and unstructured data collections, and numerous query formulations. In turn, Part II is devoted to the role of entities in bridging unstructured and structured data. Part III explores how entities can enable search engines to understand the concepts, meaning, and intent behind the query that the user enters into the search box, and how they can provide rich and focused responses (as opposed to merely a list of documents)—a process known as semantic search. The final chapter concludes the book by discussing the limitations of current approaches, and suggesting directions for future research. Researchers and graduate students are the primary target audience of this book. A general background in information retrieval is sufficient to follow the material, including an understanding of basic probability and statistics concepts as well as a basic knowledge of machine learning concepts and supervised learning algorithms.

Management Enabling the Future Internet for Changing Business and New Computing Services Choong Seon Hong, Toshio Tonouchi, Yan Ma, Chi-Shih Chao, 2009-09-19 We are delighted to present the proceedings of the 12th Asia-Pacific Network Operations and Management Symposium (APNOMS 2009), which was held in Jeju, Korea, during September 23–25, 2009. Recently, various convergences in wired and wireless networks, and convergence of telecommunications and broadcastings, are taking place for ubiquitous multimedia service provisioning. For example, broadband IP/MPLS wired networks are actively converged with IEEE 802.11e wireless LAN, IEEE 802.16 Wireless MAN, 3G/4G wireless cellular networks, and direct multimedia broadcast (DMB) networks. For efficient support of service provisioning for ubiquitous multimedia services on the broadband convergence networks, well-designed and implemented network operations and management functions with QoS-guaranteed traffic engineering are essential. The converged network will open the way for a new world with emerging new businesses and computing services. The Organizing Committee (OC) selected “Management Enabling the Future Internet for Changing Business and New Computing Services” as the timely theme of APNOMS 2009. Contributions from academia, industry and research institutions met these challenges with 173 paper submissions, from which 41 high-quality papers (23.7% of the submissions) were selected for technical sessions as full papers, and 32 papers were selected as short papers. In addition, we had nine papers in innovation sessions for on-going research. Diverse topics were covered, including Traffic Trace Engineering, Configuration and Fault Management, Management of IP-Based Networks, Autonomous and Distributed Control, Sensor Network and P2P Management, Converged Networks and Traffic Engineering, SLA and QoS Management, Active and Security Management, Wireless and Mobile Network Management, and Security Management.
