Gary Chambers

Reflections on Motivation Gary Chambers,2001 The first of an annual series, Reflections on Motivation draws on the work and experience of colleagues in universities, schools and local authorities to provide a blend of theory and practical classroom application. The reader is provided not only with an insight into activities which have succeeded in motivating foreign language learners but also the rationale behind them, with the aim of providing a template for others to follow to enhance motivation in their working contexts.

If I Were God Forough Farokhzad,2008-08 Forough Farokhzad (1935-1967) is a legendary and controversial figure whose poetry has been repeatedly banned in Iran. Farokhzad was both celebrated and condemned for writing candidly about love, sex, politics, organized religion and the plight of the individual. Her death in an automobile accident at the age of thirty-two cut short a brilliant and tempestuous life, eloquently portrayed in the poems, interviews, and letters collected here. A foreword by Andre Dubus and a trio of insightful essays by translator Meetra A. Sofia provide the historical and cultural context for understanding the revolutionary nature of Farokhzad's life and work, which continues to inspire generation after generation to memorize her poetry and to regard Farokhzad as an iconic symbol of personal freedom.
