The Father Seeketh Such to Worship Him Dr Charles E. Lewis Sr,2015-10-20 In the eyes of many believers, worship is the most important thing the church does. However, it often remains the least studied and reflected upon of all the church's activities.The Father Seeketh Such to Worship Him is a balanced and all-inclusive assessment of worship taken from the biblical view of the tabernacle. God deserves worship, and God desires worship, and it is an essential part of our relationship with Him. This book explores the various ways we can praise and worship God and gives clergy and lay people alike fresh insights into the meaning and practice of worship old and new. Dr. Charles E. Lewis Sr. is senior pastor of Antioch and Kairos Church Ministries. He is a graduate of Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in South Hamilton, Massachusetts, where he received his Doctor of Ministry degree in biblical worship. He is a site director for Apex School of Theology, Durham, North Carolina. He is also the author of Reconciliation of Worship in the Black Church: Spontaneous Worship.

What God Says About... Nathan Jarrett,2014-12-07 Do you know what the Word of God (the Bible) actually says about how we are to worship the LORD God? The Creator of the heavens and the earth! If someone asks you how do you do that, can you give them the right answer? This book actually covers how to worship Him the way He wants us to worship Him! Many people worship The LORD in their way instead of the way He wants to be worshiped. Let's worship Him by obeying what He tells us to do rather than just holding up our hands, dancing around, or just telling Him we love Him! Learn to worship the LORD His way!

Biblical Worship Shamblin Stone,2012-03 God has always had a way He wants to be worshiped. He has outlined that way for us in His written revelation—the Bible. In it, He has commanded us to worship Him with our entire being, holding nothing back. According to Jesus, this is the first and greatest commandment. The reasons God has given us for obeying His commands to worship Him are: because of who He is, and because of what He does. Worship is the biblically declared reason for mankind's existence. However, how and when we worship is just as important as the fact that we do worship. Also, what God means when He uses the biblical synonyms of the word “worship” is important to understand when we are trying to obtain a more complete picture of how God wants us to worship Him. Biblical Worship is a book for every Christian, regardless of their preferred worship style or worship traditions. The fresh, new insights contained within its pages about what type of worship God desires from us all have the potential to shock you at times. At the very least, this book will cause you to never view worship the same way again.

How God Wants Us to Worship Him Joe Morecraft, III,2001-12-01 When it comes to worship, the sad truth is that most Christians have traded their New Testament heritage for the hip and trendy, dispensing with the simplicity and beauty of New Testament worship. In this well-reasoned and exegetically sound treatise, Dr. Morecraft offers a principled defense for the Bible as the only guide for worship in the meeting of the church. In a day when the Sunday worship of evangelical churches is too often dominated by performers and youth culture, it is increasingly rare to find churches that take seriously the doctrine of sola scriptura and regulative worship.

Worship and Praise Ted Hanson,2022-08-20 This is a 2022 Revised Edition.Does praise lead us to worship God? Is praise something we give to God that we might come to worship Him? What are the purposes of worship and praise? Does God need our worship and praise? This book answers these questions and more. Worship and Praise are expressions of life! Life comes out of living relationships; life doesn't come out of works of ministries. We are the body of Christ, not a structure of church functions. Worship and praise are simply expressions of life testifying of God's presence in our lives! True worship and praise are birthed from an intimate relationship with God. The more we experience who God is, the more we respond to who He is. This is worship. The more we experience who God is, the more we declare who He is. This is praise. When we know we are loved by Him we cannot help but worship and praise who He is!Worship and praise are not rituals we perform, they are responses to God's love. The result is seen in heavenly changes in the world around us. Our world changes by His presence. As we worship Him and manifest His life we prophetically destroy the strongholds of every enemy. Love wins! God speaks and life happens! This is the way of worship and praise as God moves among us! Worship is the fruit of experiencing God's presence in our lives. When we see who He is in our lives, we cannot help but worship Him. We love Him because He first loved us.

The Command of Melchizedek Daniel Oyegun,2017-04-24 The Command of Melchizedek dwells upon often overlooked verses of scripture and the deep spiritual import of these prophetic writings from a theological and deep-thinking perspective; it expands on the person of Melchizedek and the attendant order and command which followed the ascension of Jesus into heaven, which order states, Let all the Angels of God worship him, and also Worship Him, all you gods. It reaches into the mind of Moses when he wrote Genesis, opening with these words from the Torah, Beresiyt Bara Elohim, meaning In the beginning, Gods created... and not God created as we know it. It lights up in our hearts the truth of the creator making Adam and Eve, male and female, expressly in their own image and likeness, after the Father and the Mother.
