George Vasey

Trying Biology Adam R. Shapiro, 2013-05-21 In Trying Biology, Adam R. Shapiro convincingly dispels many conventional assumptions about the 1925 Scopes “monkey” trial. Most view it as an event driven primarily by a conflict between science and religion. Countering this, Shapiro shows the importance of timing: the Scopes trial occurred at a crucial moment in the history of biology textbook publishing, education reform in Tennessee, and progressive school reform across the country. He places the trial in this broad context—alongside American Protestant antievolution sentiment—and in doing so sheds new light on the trial and the historical relationship of science and religion in America. For the first time we see how religious objections to evolution became a prevailing concern to the American textbook industry even before the Scopes trial began. Shapiro explores both the development of biology textbooks leading up to the trial and the ways in which the textbook industry created new books and presented them as “responses” to the trial. Today, the controversy continues over textbook warning labels, making Shapiro’s study—particularly as it plays out in one of America’s most famous trials—an original contribution to a timely discussion.

Article Marketing Secrets Exposed Anthony Ekanem, 2016-06-06 Of all the ways to make money online, in my opinion, article marketing is the easiest and best way for anybody to make their first dollar. The best part is that without spending any more than the cost of a domain name, you can create a passive income that can bring you money from an article that you wrote years ago. So ask yourself: Is spending a few minutes writing a 250-word article worth the time if it brings you money still years later? I thought yes would be the answer. I'm sure you've heard a ton of different opinions on how you should do article marketing and how you should provide the best information possible, write informative articles and give your reader value and so on. Well, what you're about to read is probably going to go against a lot of what you have read, and the article gurus are not going to like it.....but doing it this way has made me A LOT of money so I don't care if they agree with me or not! I'm going to do it the way it makes money and a way that continues to bring me money day in and day out. If you are willing to put in the time to follow this method, you WILL make money and a good amount of it. What you need to remember is that there is no super highway to making money on the Internet. You MUST stay consistent and motivated even when you get frustrated and feel like things are not going your way. It is those who continue to work and promote their business that will in the end be successful. So, no more pep talks. Let's get right into it.
