Life 101 Mark Vian,2008-03 Our lives become so filled with stress and activities; we sometimes forget the little wonders of joy that fill our day. We become so entangled in stuff that we may miss the realization that life is a gift. In Life 101, Mark S. Vian inspires us to reflect on our existence. Vian encourages us to stop and think about our chosen place in life, both in the past and in the present. Only we can make the decision to live happy and fulfilling lives. No matter what has happened in the past, our perspective of life and the future should become our focus and ultimate reality. The many poems, inspirational quotes, and readings carry positive messages of hope and encouragement. The title poem summarizes the book's theme of living life fully: Life blossoms for those who seek expression/goodness, and fulfillment/Life flounders for those who, in their arrogance/feel life owes them expression, goodness, and fulfillment. In today's world of high expectations and differing perspectives of right and wrong, society is starving for a simpler and more understanding life. The messages in Life 101 move us toward that goal.

Simply Philosophical Quotes Abstract Thoughts,2021-07-22 Do you want to take a tour through time and go deep into the minds of the most influential philosophers of all humanity? If you want to immerse yourself in some words of wisdom from these great thinkers, then keep reading... 'It is the mark of an educated mind to be able to entertain a thought without accepting it' - Aristotle I have been a deep thinker for as long as I can remember. I would continually question existence, identity, reality, ethics, politics, religion, metaphysics and everything in between. I've always found it fascinating to entertain those thoughts, but for the most part, could never share it with others as it can come off strange and intense to many who are not on the same 'wavelength'. Sound familiar? Realising that not a lot of others might think in the same exploratory way as me, I decided to look elsewhere to see if other thinkers of the past thought or shared similar ideas. Aristotle, Plato, Descartes to name a few; they all shared such a wise and unique way of thinking, with the continuous pursuit to challenge conventional knowledge and thought processes. Many of these philosophers were strong believers that you should always question everything. They believed that for one to become fully realised you must first begin to look inside and reflect on yourself and your thoughts. Do you sometimes find yourself deep in thought, feeling connected to a train of thought and your mind in a way that feels foreign but natural? Do you ever find yourself contemplating reality, the origins of ethics, or if our current social structure is the most efficient to society it can be? Through reading quotes we can travel through time and by practice of evaluation we can start connecting with how these thinkers thought. We can read a quote and resonate with it so deeply to the point it's as if we share the same experience as the quoter. This skill can be developed through this practice and has scientifically proven benefits such as increased critical thinking and information organisation. In Simply Philosophical Quotes you will discover: A swift introduction to the most influential thinkers of all time Their top 3 teachings and ideas 5 fascinating facts you won't have heard before 915 inspiring, thought-provoking quotes that will leave you deep in reflection The importance of evaluating your own thoughts Philosophers include Plato, Aristotle, Socrates, René Descartes, Confucius, Immanuel Kant, The Buddha, John Locke, Epictetus and Friedrich Nietzsche.
