The past several decades have been marked by notable changes in women's labor force activities compared to men's, including increased labor force participation, employment growth in higher paying occupations, & gains in real earnings. This report presents historical & current labor force & earnings data for women & men from the Current Population Survey (CPS). The CPS is a national monthly survey of approx. 60,000 households conducted by the U.S. Census Bureau for the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS). Unless otherwise noted, data are annual averages from the CPS. The Technical Note at the end of this report provides a detailed description of the source of the data & an explanation of concepts & definitions used. Extensive charts & tables.
