Book of Revelations 831 Driftwood Neiderman,2015-01-06 Book of Revelations 831 follows the main character – and author – “Driftwood Neiderman” through his many scandalous, raunchy, and thought-provoking relationships. Each true story concludes with a personal revelation about himself, and his counterpart. Filled with unbelievable true stories, these memoirs are X-rated, entertaining, and certainly engaging, a combination that will keep readers hanging on to the edge of their comfy sofas. Says the author, “The main character of this book is myself, Driftwood Neiderman. Set in present day, I detail the fiascos that I would call my dating life. I do, however, attempt to wrap each dumpster fire of a relationship up in a nice bow at the end.” At one point, he even asks, “What is love?” His answer? “Maybe it's easier to answer this question by examining another question first, what love is not? Love is not monogamy. Love is not perfect. Love is not painless and love is not easy.” Of course, this is not one of the X-rated parts of the book! Revelations is a revelation.

Dignity and Respect Kevin Rice,2009 This book chronicles the labor movement among those sanitation workers from the mid-1800s, the rise of its union and how that story links to other U.S. history. That includes the union's role in the cleanup after 9/11.

Sector 831 Kelly M O'Rourke,2020-12-10 Adira Vos has lived her entire life in isolation. Her parent's generation were the first to test out the idea of Sector's - small, bubble-like isolation units that were built to house one family each. The Sector System is supposed to give the earth time to heal from the damage of civilization. Adira's generation was promised a world healed from pollution, but in her 20 years of life she has yet to see this new world with her own eyes. It is not until she is swept away by a group of people who grew up outside of the Sector's that her perception of the world is shattered completely.
